UN Secretary Tries to Keep Council Calm in Suez Case

RESCUERS RUSH TO BUILDING COLLAPSE SCENE—Ambulances and emergency vehicles are at scene of the collapse of a three million dollar office building under construction in Jackson, Mich. Four bodies have been found. Searchers are still looking for six others in the wreckage. (AP Wirephoto)

Convicts Help in Search

6 Still Missing Today In Collapsed Building

Jackson, Mich., Oct. 4 (AP)—Heart-sick volunteers broke off rescue operations early today in the shattered ruins of a collapsed building, leaving at least six men presumed dead in wreckage that already has yielded four bodies.

The task of uncovering tangled tons of concrete and steel which buried the victims will resume later today after tottering walls that threaten to fall on rescuers have been knocked down.

A gang of more than 100 convicts from nearby Southern Michigan Prison worked through the night on the dangerous digging job and inmate volunteers were at the rubble-strewn scene today to help wrecking crews.

Hope Fades

The halt in the frantic digging that had continued throughout the night canceled the last faint hope that some of the trapped workmen would be found alive.

John Schweitzer, a construction superintendent directing the rescue work, said at least six men are still in the wreckage and all are presumed dead.

Fifteen others were injured yesterday when the half completed office building of the Consumers Power Co. collapsed with a roar like the sound of an exploding bomb.

Built for Blast

The four-story poured-concrete structure had been designed to withstand the shock of an A-bomb blast.

The workmen fell screaming to their deaths amid steel girders and chunks of concrete that crashed through all four floors of the structure.

At Jackson, Miss., the southern city of the same name, 13 men were injured yesterday in the collapse of a portion of a parkage garage under tons of wet concrete.

A 40-by-40 foot section gave way as workmen were pouring and smoothing cement in steel forms. The workmen were plunged 20 feet to the ground.

Scene of Terror

The Jackson, Mich., disaster was a scene of terror.

"It all happened so fast I didn't get to see very much," said Russell Taylor 64, a carpenter who was inside the building. "There was a cloud of dust and it was over in about three seconds. Shortly afterward I could hear the screams of the men who were trapped."

J. H. Crowe, a carpenter who had left the building moments before, said "it sounded like a big bomb exploding."

A tense moment came late last night when noisy generators and rescue machinery were shut off for 10 minutes while a dozen workers went far down into the debris to listen for moans or a sound that would indicate life.

Nearby Diggers Return

But all was silent and the men returned wearily to dig some more.

During the 10 minutes of sil-

Kingston Legion To Be Parley Host

Kingston Post, No. 150, American Legion, will be host to the third District, Department of New York, American Legion conference on Sunday, Oct. 7, Commander William Hanley of Kingston Post announced today.

The meeting is called for 2:30 p. m. at the Legion building, West O'Reilly street.

District Commander Vincent Colsapple of Germantown urges all delegates to attend and also extends to all Legionnaires an invitation to be present and hear Department Commander Martin J. McKneally, who will brief members on the highlights of the recent national convention which was held in Los Angeles, Calif., last month.

Vincent Cahill, Department membership chairman, will show the latest film on "Why It Is Great to Be an American Legionaire."

The Third District comprises the counties of Ulster, Sullivan, Greene, Columbia, Rensselaer, Albany and Schoharie.

Mrs. Edward Snyder, president of the American Legion Auxiliary of Kingston Post, and her committee will serve a luncheon after the conference.

Tito Failure Reported

Soviet Bosses Unchanged on Stalin

Belgrade, Oct. 4 (AP)—President Tito reportedly has failed to convince his Soviet hosts at Yalta that they should not soft-pedal their de-Stalinization program.

Informed sources said the Soviet-Yugoslav talks in the Crimea have reached an impasse over Tito's reported insistence that the lessening of Moscow's controls continue as a condition for reviving Belgrade's ties with Yugoslav's satellite neighbors.

These informants said Tito's campaign for independence of the satellite Communist parties from the Kremlin's direction has run into opposition from Soviet party chief Nikita Khrushchev himself.

Khrushchev reportedly has cooled on the so-called liberal policy introduced following the Soviet Communist Party Congress last February and Tito's visit to the Soviet Union in June.

The report is based on growing belief that Khrushchev's power in the Kremlin has waned and that he has been forced to swing toward the viewpoint of former Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and other old-time Stalinists in the Soviet hierarchy.

Molotov, Deputy Premier Lazar Kaganovitch and other old guard members are said to feel that Khrushchev's softer policy went too far and weakened the Soviet position in eastern Europe.

The "bread and freedom" riots that wracked the Polish city of Poznan in August are said to have aroused Kremlin fears that a relaxing of the reins might inspire similar violence in other satellites.

Few here believe Khrushchev has undergone any change of heart about Stalinism. But he apparently shares his Kremlin associates' alarm as to where a policy of more independence for the satellites might lead.

Diplomats here believe Khrushchev wanted to explain this to Tito when he made his surprise visit to Brioni recently. But with the Yalta talks in their seventh day, Tito was reported standing fast by his insistence on (1) full independence for the satellite Communist parties; (2) equal rights for all Communist parties, and (3) non-adherence to any "socialist camp" which may resemble a bloc.

There were no indications when Tito would return from Yalta. But few diplomats believe the talks will settle any of the major differences between Moscow and Belgrade. Whatever the outcome of the talks, the Russians apparently hope to present an appearance of Soviet-Yugoslav solidarity. Pravda, the official Soviet Communist party paper, made this plain yesterday when it declared the Yalta meeting indicated Belgrade-Moscow friendship was growing stronger every day.

Marine Band Here Tonight

The 158-year-old United States Marine Band will appear at the Kate Walton Field House today at 8 p. m., under the sponsorship of Joyce-Schirick Post 1386, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Ulster Detachment Marine Corps League.

A matinee performance for the convenience of school students was scheduled at 2 p. m.

The band last appeared here in 1954.

Organized in 1798, the Marine Band has played in the White House for every President since John Adams and has become famous in American music as the "President's own band."

Series Game Off Because of Rain

New York, Oct. 4 (AP)—Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick today ordered the postponement of today's second game of the world series between Brooklyn and the New York Yankees because of a light rain and "menacing weather."

The decision came at 11:03 a. m. (EDT) after a conference of Frick with managers Casey Stengel of the Yankees and Walter Alston of the Brooklyn Dodgers and the umpires.

Huddle in Dugout

The huddle was held in the Brooklyn dugout at Ebbets Field while a light sprinkle fell on the diamond, which was covered by a tarpaulin.

"These conditions are all right for playing," the commissioner said, "but the forecast for general, and possibly heavier rains, this afternoon have forced us to call off the game."

The second game will be played Friday at Ebbets Field with the forecast for fair weather. The rain is expected to end in the early morning.

First in 5 Years

It was the first postponement of a world series game in five years. A Sunday game at the Polo Grounds in 1951 between the Yankees and New York Giants was postponed then because of rain.

Frick said:

"My biggest nightmare since I became commissioner is the fear that sometime we might have to play an abbreviated world series game. It never has been done and I hope that we will never

Harriman Wants 453 More Miles On Federal Roads

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)—Gov. Harriman has asked the federal government for a 37 per cent expansion of the interstate highway system in New York state, it was reported today.

The governor's office said Harriman had requested the Federal Bureau of Public Roads to add 453 miles to the recognized interstate road network, increasing the state's total from 1,226 to 1,679 miles.

The proposal, if accepted, would allot to New York almost half of the additional 1,000 miles of interstate highway authorized nationally under the new federal highway construction program. The national total was raised from 40,000 to 41,000 miles.

U. S. Pays 90 Per Cent

Under the new federal program, the federal government pays 90 per cent of the cost of building interstate roads while the state pays the remaining 10 per cent.

No federal aid will be apportioned for construction of toll roads, however, even though acknowledged as part of the interstate system.

Harriman pointed out in a statement that the State Thruway, a toll road, constituted almost half of the state's interstate system, "thus," he said, "depriving New York of much of the potential benefits of the increased federal interstate aid."

Asks Special Consideration

Harriman said that, because of that situation, he was "firmly convinced that special consideration should be given to the highway needs of our state."

The governor's proposals included removal from the interstate system of Thruway sections already built in the Rochester, Syracuse, Schenectady and Niagara Falls areas. He proposed utilizing the mileage on other suggested routes.

Changes Proposed

Following are the changes to the interstate system proposed by the governor:

1. Extension of interstate Route 2 (the Penn-Canada Expressway) from the Watertown area to Ogdensburg, to connect with the proposed Ogdensburg bridge.

2. Placement of a section of Route 17 on the interstate system, running from a junction on Route 17K and Interstate Route 6 in Orange county to Elmira, and adding a new section running north from Elmira to Rochester,

3. A new route to run from Buffalo southward roughly paralleling Route 219 and crossing the Pennsylvania state line near Bradford, Pa.

4. A connector route, linking the proposed extension of Route 17 (No. 2 above) and the proposed route from Buffalo (No. 3 above). The connector would run from Dansville, Livingston county, to Springville, Erie county.

5. A new route along the east shore of the Hudson river, from the Tappan Zee bridge at Tarrytown to a junction with Interstate Route 6 near Beacon.

6. A new route from the Troy vicinity to the Vermont state line roughly paralleling Route 7.

7. A route running from Schenectady eastward to connect with the proposed route from Troy.

8. A connection of Staten Island from Goethals Bridge southward to the outerbridge crossing and a short spur from the proposed Cloves Lake Expressway to the Bayonne Bridge.

9. Extension of the toll-free Niagara section of the Thruway from Niagara Falls to connect with a proposed bridge near Lewiston. Previous plans called for a route leading to Rainbow Bridge in Niagara Falls.

Three New Men Join Police Ranks, Special Officers

Three recently appointed special patrolmen began their duties this week with the local police department, Police Chief Raymand VanBuren reported today.

The new men are Bruce Clarke, of 487 East Union street, Frank Monte, of 74 Green street and Robert FitzGibbon, of 15 Prospect street.

Two Leave Department

Two who had served as special patrolmen, John Houghtaling, who had been with the department for about two years, and Thomas Whispell, who had served about a year, left the department last month.

Two of the newly appointed men will serve on night duty and one will be on the day force, Chief VanBuren said.

The department now has 36 regular patrolmen and eight specials, plus the chief, three lieutenants and six sergeants, and two detectives.

Registration Days

Friday will be the first day of registration in this city for the presidential election to be held November 6. The polls throughout the city will be open from 10 in the morning until 10 in the evening.

Saturday will be the second day of registration and the polls also will be open from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.

The best course is to make plans to register tomorrow or Saturday so that you may vote in this important election.

If you fail to register this weekend or next, you lose your vote.

UMW Pay Raise Applauded, but Signing Is Held Up by Firms on Vacation Angle

Cincinnati, Oct. 4 (AP)—John L. Lewis is an embarrassed man today—he announced a new wage deal to his United Mine Workers convention only to have the mine owners' representative refuse to sign it.

Lewis told his 3,000 convention delegates here that the UMW he heads had initialed a contract agreement calling for a $2.40 daily boost in wages and other benefits.

Delegates cheered and eventually ratified the deal after some debate. But a scheduled signing of the new wage pact a few hours later failed to come off.

It developed that Edward G. Fox, president of the Bituminous Coal Operators' Assn. (BCOA), who had penetrated a close fog over Cincinnati in a private plane to come here to sign a contract, also left through the haze, without putting his signature to the final deal offered by Lewis.

Fox returned to Pittsburgh for a meeting with BCOA directors. He said the purpose of the session was to clarify an issue that developed over an additional $40 annual vacation pay.

Fox said the chief question arose over whether the $40 should be paid separately at the start of the Christmas vacation period or covered in a total lump sum of $180 at the start of the regular vacation period in the summer.

The coal leader said the question was raised yesterday at a directors' meeting here. He said he expected to return to Cincinnati with a clarification of the situation.

Fox said UMW officials had understood a lump payment was to be made at the beginning of the summer vacation. He said there was no question that the total vacation payment would be $180.

Few expected the impasse would last long. The significance of the situation was that Fox—recently drafted from a labor role in the anthracite or hard coal phase of the coal business—had apparently reached a misunderstanding with Lewis.

Fox just a few weeks ago took over the main labor bargaining job for the soft coal industry as president of BCOA, which represents principal northern coal mines, as well as mines owned by the steel industry and utility concerns, known as "captive" mines.

The UMW delegates cheered at their union's convention yesterday when Lewis and other UMW officials related that the prospective new agreement called for a $1.20 daily wage boost effective Oct. 1, plus an additional 80-cent daily increase effective April 1, or a total of $2 a day.

This would boost the basic daily wage for miners from $20.25 now to $22.25.

The additional 40 cents per day, as estimated by the union, apparently would come from the extra vacation and holiday provisions, plus overtime and double time for Sunday provisions. These were specified in the prospective agreement approved by the union convention.

Lewis, before his breakup with Fox, had hailed the tentative agreement as a continuation of forward-looking relations in the coal industry that has produced six years of peace, without major strikes and without government intereference in coal labor relations.

Stop Blonde With $1,800

Woman, Two Airmen Held for Base Theft

Albany, Oct. 4 (AP) — FBI agents today arrested a 21-year-old blonde they said was en route from Plattsburgh to New York city with $1,800 of a $3,524 loot from a safe burglary at the Plattsburgh Air Force Base.

Two 19-year-old airmen were arrested at the air base yesterday and charged with theft of government property. The FBI said all but $300 was recovered in the arrest of the airmen and the woman.

The agents took Miss Marcia E. Wilkins, 21, of (Adirondack lane) Plattsburgh, into custody at a bus terminal here.

Two Planned Marriage

She said she and one of the airmen, Caesar R. Chirico, 19, had planned to be married Oct. 20 in Brooklyn. She was en route to visit Chirico's parents in Brooklyn, she said.

The other airman was William I. Jarret of Evansville, Ill.

Miss Wilkins was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Bender Solomon on charges of theft of government property and receiving and illegally possessing government property. She waived examination and was held in Albany County Jail. Bail was set at $1,000.

Airmen Held for Jury

The airmen waived examination before U. S. Commissioner Samuel E. Healey in Plattsburgh and were held for transfer to Albany and grand jury action. Bail was set at $2,500 each.

The Knickerbocker News said Miss Wilkins told a reporter in the presence of a U. S. marshal that Chirico had informed her yesterday "How one of the soldiers had stolen a lot of money at the airbase and said he had part of it."

Afraid of Return

"I wanted him to take it back. He told me he couldn't, that he'd be sure of getting into trouble if he tried," the newspaper quoted her as saying.

The newspaper further reported:

Miss Wilkins said Chirico at first gave her $30 for fare and spending money, $50 for a wedding gown and $200 to be turned over to his mother to be deposited in a bank. At the bus station in Plattsburgh, she said, he passed her $1,500 more and told her to "hang on" to it.

The FBI said preliminary investigation indicated Jarrett had learned the combination to the safe in the air base commisary and had opened it Tuesday night while Chirico served as a lookout.

Grape Delivery Reported Normal

Picketing by members of the Ulster County Farmers Union at Hudson Valley Pure Foods Co., Highland ended Wednesday and grape growers in the area have begun harvesting their crops, according to Charles L. Rice, president of the union.

Mr. Rice indicated that although the picketed plant is the largest in the area and usually sets the price, other buyers of Concord grapes have been offering higher prices this week.

Were Asking $90

Picketing started last Friday when members of the union were dissatisified with the processing plant's $75-a-ton offer and were asking $90 per ton on the basis of cost figures released by Cornell University.

Although $75 is less than the cost to produce, the union is pleased to have obtained this increase over an original $70 offered, Mr. Rice said.

Monday, the union charged that grapes were delivered to the plant in garbage trucks, and reported to the Ulster County Health Department.

Complaint Checked

The complaint was referred to the Department of Agriculture and Markets, a health department spokesman said, because

Two Stick To London Decisions

Dulles Awaited, Soviet Is Quiet

United Nations, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)— Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold is reported using his full influence to avert a showdown security council fight which might shut the door to further UN peace efforts in the Suez dispute.

Informed quarters said this was the main theme in the series of private talks Hammarskjold is having with high ranking diplomats assembling here for the Suez debate beginning in the security council tomorrow.

Will Push Demands

The secretary general was understood to have found substantial support, but Britain and France said they were determined to push their demands for a UN endorsement of the plan for international control of the canal approved by the London conference in mid-August.

Hammarskjold and his supporters feared that the possibility of future UN helpfulness might be eliminated if this plan were rejected either by a Soviet veto or through failure to get the necessary 7 votes in the 11-nation council.

Would Form Committee

Hammarskjold is trying to enlist support for formation of some kind of negotiating committee to keep the discussions alive without placing the UN behind either side in the dispute. The form of the negotiating group and the sponsorship still were under discussion.

One of those backing this idea is Iranian Delegate Djalal Abdoh. Diplomatic observers said the United States is interested in this plan, but U. S. delegation so far has not come out for it publicly.

Wait for Dulles

Pending the arrival of Secretary of State Dulles for tomorrow's meeting, U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., has been keeping in close contact with British and French representatives. British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd said yesterday he hoped the United States would support the British-French proposal, but informed sources indicated the United States was extremely cool toward it.

Yugoslav Foreign Minister Koca Popovic has been active in the compromise talks. Peruvian Delegate Victor Andres Belaunde also was reported favor-

Campaign Gets Rough

Adlai, Nixon Trade Pennsy Charges

(By The Associated Press)

Top Democratic and Republican campaigners got rough last night, with Adlai Stevenson accusing President Eisenhower of "misrepresentations" and Vice President Nixon saying Stevenson has made statements "terribly damaging to America's interests abroad."

Stevenson, the Democratic presidential candidate, spoke from Pittsburgh in a nationally-televised reply to Eisenhower's campaign speeches earlier this week in Cleveland and Lexington, Ky.

Nixon was at the other end of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia, where he struck anew at Stevenson's proposal that the United States lead in a move to end hydrogen bomb tests.

Pennsylvania, with its 32 electoral votes, is a major battleground in the Democratic-Republican struggle for control of the White House and Congress.

Eisenhower will make his next major campaign speech from Pittsburgh on Tuesday.

Rounding out a morning-to-night schedule of appearances in Pennsylvania communities, Stevenson told a nationwide TV audience Eisenhower had been guilty of "gross misstatement" of the record on such matters as social security, the minimum wage, relief of unemployment in distressed areas, the cost of living, farm prices, small business and civil rights.

At one point, the Democratic presidential nominee departed from his prepared text to chide Eisenhower for saying some Democrats are talking "wicked nonsense."

"I think it's too bad," Stevenson said that any criticism of the administration, any disagreement with its policies—or lack of policies—is dismissed as some form of moral delinquency or wickedness.

"Criticism and self-examination are the safeguards of democracy. . . . If responsible and reasoned they are not wicked—they are healthy."

Stevenson planned to move briefly into West Virginia today before turning northward again to speak at three street rallies in New York city tonight.

Nixon's biting attack on Stevenson in Philadelphia last night wound up a 15,000 mile cross-continent tour by the vice president.

Referring to Stevenson's repeated suggestion that H-bomb tests be halted, Nixon called this "catastrophic nonsense," adding:

"Russia is still surrounded by an iron curtain, and for us to agree as Mr. Stevenson suggests to discontinue tests before we have a fool proof inspection system would be just like playing Russian roulette, but with only the Russians knowing which chamber had the fatal bullet in it."

Nixon said Stevenson was making "shotgun attacks" on Eisenhower's policies. And this, Nixon said, hurt the United States abroad.

The vice president was back in Washington today for five days of rest and conferences with party leaders and Eisenhower before he takes off again next Tuesday, this time for a swing through 14 states.

Tonight, Nixon is scheduled to go before the television cameras (NBC—8:30 p. m. EDT) in what the Republican National Committee claims is "another first." Nixon will be questioned by political writers in eight cities he visited in his just-completed trip.

13 Area Men Enlist For Naval Service

Thirteen area youths enlisted in the U. S. Navy during September and are now undergoing recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Bainbridge, Md., according to an announcement today by Chief Quartermaster James Wingo, recruiter in charge of the local navy recruiting office, room 209, Central Post Office.

After completion of recruit training the navymen will receive a 14 day leave before reporting to their new duty and school assignments.

Richard W. Murphy and John C. Schoonmaker of Phoenicia; Robert G. Myers, West Shokan; Julius J. Shopinsky, Jr., Highland; Allen B. Berzal, Joseph Comito, Philip A. Overbaugh and Edward V. Reynolds, Jr. of Saugerties; Leighton L. Squires, Margaretville; Richard M. Hasbrouck, Accord; Leroy W. Lapp, Alligerville; Ralph E. Wilson, Jr. Lake Katrine and Raymond M. Quick of Cottekill.

Chief Wingo said that all high school graduates of the group were guaranteed attendance at a technical school after recruit training and the non graduates ca n receive technical schooling by making a qualifying mark on the classification tests which are administered to the recruits at the training center. The recruiter said the navy offers young men a wonderful opportunity to acquire specialized trade training in one of over 60 major career fields. He said there are over 1100 navy job classifications and the navy operates 800 schools for the training of its personnel. The local office is open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Monday through Friday.

Kiwanis Team Is Winner in Chest Division Pledges

The Kiwanis Club was the winner of the friendly competition among service club teams to secure pledges in the Commercial Division of the Community Chest drive, it was announced today by Robert L. Sabin, division chairman.

Mr. Sabin, who is president of the Rotary Club, revealed that Kiwanis teams reported $3,219 in pledges out of a total $9,389.50 raised in that portion of the Commercial drive.

Rotary was second with $2,664 in pledges obtained, Lions third with $2,123, and the Junior Chamber of Commerce had $1,083.50.

Solicited Firms

The competition took place last week, when different club members met each morning, Tuesday through Saturday, for a "Dutch treat" breakfast at the Governor Clinton Hotel to receive their prospect cards. Each team then spent the next three hours in soliciting business firms.

Mr. Sabin pointed out that the Junior Chamber of Commerce, although not equalling the totals raised by the other clubs, was to be commended as its total membership is only about one-third that of any of the three other clubs.

More than 350 local business firms were contacted in this phase of the drive.

Participation by service club members was voluntary, and appromimately 130 men from the four clubs were involved over the week.

Lauded by Steinkuller

Paul F. Steinkuller, general campaign chairman, today noted that the service clubs and the Junior Chamber "should be complimented on their fine cooperation."

In addition to the service club competition, the Commercial Division has also received returns from members of the Kingston Automobile Dealers Association, which pledged in advance of the drive, and from national firms. The Division to date has accounted for more than $12,000 in pledges, and additional returns will be received for the next two weeks.

Welfare Office Praised for Care In New Infirmary

The Ulster County Welfare Department is in receipt of a letter of congratulations from the State Department of Social Welfare for the work of the local organization in the care of the aged and in its efforts to obtain the "magnificent new infirmary in Kingston."

The letter, addressed to Edward E. Murray, Ulster county commissioner, said the state department wanted to tell the local department "how much we have appreciated working with you for better standards of care for those who need help. Your constant concern over inadequate care of the aged encouraged us to support your program that resulted in the magnificent new infirmary in Kingston. Your support of our adoption program has already shown results and each child adopted has been one child made happier, one home brighter and at the same time relieved the taxpayer of as many as 18 years of support at public expense."

The communication, signed by R. B. Guild, area director, pointed out further that "we know that with your leadership Ulster county will continue to further improve services to the client and to the community."

This can best be accomplished by several additions to the staff, however, which, according to state standards, is insufficient in number, Mr. Guild wrote.

THE CLASSIFIEDS

Freedom's Key to Better Living is the theme for this year's National Newspaper Week which currently is being observed. The classified ads make an important contribution to better living because it provides a daily market place for buyer and seller, a market place so vast as to be immeasurable.

The classified ads serve as a central market place where persons with things to sell and persons with things to buy complete their transactions. They are interesting reading because they are a guide for bargains and services that could not be obtained from any other source. These range from lavish estates, houses for sale or rent, businesses for sale, services offered down to second-hand toys and clothing.

But classified ads serve many other purposes. Take the new resident in the community. He wants to buy or rent a house, he looks at the job opportunities and at the services offered. He wants to make known his needs. The classified ads are truly a barometer of the progress of a community.

LIKE A BIRD

There probably never was a time when men weren't a little jealous of birds, because of their almost effortless ability to fly. Man has his flying machine, but it is dependent on a noisy motor which is far from infallible. Also, inside a big passenger plane, there's no real sensation of floating.

But that sensation—that airy suspension between heaven and earth which men have dreamed of—has actually been achieved in some fast plane diving tests. For half a minute 16 men hovered in "zero gravity" conditions, and most of them found it pleasant, relaxing and strange. The plane motion counteracted the pull of gravity, so the men felt no weight, no pull, no particular connection with the plane they were in.

Their reactions were reported by the United States Air Force school of aviation medicine at the International Astronautical congress in Rome. The same gravity-less state is achieved on a roller coaster, but the moment is usually so brief it seems just part of a quick heave and fling downward.

All this is still a long way from the floating of a bird on an autumn breeze, but the plane tests gave a quick feel of that mysterious lightness men have never been able to achieve by themselves.

WHY A CAMPAIGN?

It is worthwhile to pause, in the midst of an election campaign that is growing more heated, to ask a question: What is the campaign for?

There are a lot of answers to this question, but essentially they boil down to two basic attitudes. One of these holds that the main reason for a campaign is to inform the public as to the men and the issues involved. The other holds that the big thing is to manipulate public opinion, to sell candidates as one would sell refrigerators or soap.

That kind of selling may be successful in some circumstances; it may get a lot of people to say yes. But getting people to say yes should not be the main objective. A campaign should inform the people, make them think, let them decide. Whether they say yes or no should be determined on that basis alone.

MAKING A NAME

A recent discusson again brought up the question whether the given names of boys will have a bearing on their progress in life. It was pointed out that men with exceptionally unusual given names seem to have difficulty getting elected to high political office: The obvious retort to this is that there are thousands and thousands of Georges, Johns, Roberts and Josephs for every one whose parents saw fit to provide fancy—and sometimes fantastic—monikers.

One thing is certain. The distinction of "making a name for himself" is open to every American boy regardless of the tag given him at birth.

THE SUPREME COURT

I came across a startling sentence in a very interesting article on "Judicial Self-Restraint," by John P. Roche of Haverford College, which read:

". . . Since the intention of the Framers is essentially irrevelant except to antiquarians and polemicists, it is unnecessary to examine further the matter of origins."

This is not taken out of context, for the following sentence is: "The fact is that the United States Supreme Court, and the inferior federal courts under the oversight of the high Court, have enormous policy-making functions."

What all this amounts to is that the Supreme Court, in fact, all the Federal courts are daily making policy by judicial decisions and when to them are added the burgeoning administrative agencies of the Federal government, the intent of the Framers of the Constitution that legislation should be the function of Congress is being violated. The explanation that an unsatisfactory decision of the Supreme Court can be rectified by a Constitutional Amendment gives little encouragement to those who fear encroachment by the Court.

Federal judges do enter upon political policy-making decisions which can cause damage and which do not reflect public opinion, as. Federal judges are appointed by the President for life or good behavior and in no manner need to reflect or pay attention to public opinion. Some of the recent decisions of Federal judges in immigration, passport and Communist cases are neither good law nor do they reflect public opinion, but they follow a pattern of liberalizing the law and of lessening the effectiveness of administrative procedures which, it would seem from the Constitution, are functions of Congress and not of the Courts. In the passport cases, the Courts have assumed an authority over the Executive which it was never intended that they should have.

If the Congress rejects public opinion, the voter can, at elections, change their representation in Congress, but the citizen has no means of expressing opposition to a judge; nay, he may even be held in contempt of court for questioning the omniscience of one who wears the robe, even if he knows in detail how the judge came to be appointed and that his qualifications as a lawyer and a judge were not even considered, but that all that mattered was political expediency. I personally witnessed such maneuvers in the 1952 Republican Convention, as I suppose dozens of other persons did.

In the 1956 Campaign, the principal issue was made not by the President, a political official, not by the Congress, elected representatives of the people, but by the Supreme Court. That issue is segregation and what the candidates of both parties proclaim is that everybody must abide by the decision of the Court. In a word, they, the candidates, are ducking the issue entirely and are hiding beneath the black robes of judicial fiat.

That that leads to rioting, to boycotts, to the disturbed lives of young people, to dissent and dissatisfaction makes no difference to the judges. They have spoken. Perhaps, from the standpoint of the law, they have spoken correctly. Perhaps, from the standpoint of morals, they have spoken correctly. But from the standpoint of the political situation, these judges have taken a political action, broader than the law, far beyond the demands of public opinion, and they have created a political plateau upon which the candidates for public office must walk.

This is not the first time in American history that this has happened. The Dred Scott decision, as much as any other political act, brought on the War between the States, and Franklin D. Roosevelt's attempt to pack the Court in order to protect New Deal legislation could have destroyed his party. There have been other instances of the political effects of the Court's political decisions when it was never the intention of the Framers that the Court should have any political characteristics. It was precisely to keep politics out of the Court that the judges were appointed for life and not elected for a term.

In this 1956 election, the candidates have to balance the sentiments of Southern whites against the sentiments of Northern Negroes; they have to calculate which states will be won or lost over this issue; they have to take into consideration the unorganized, independent vote that may altogether upset all calculations. The issue, raised by a Supreme Court decision, has become a nightmare to them.

REDUCING FIBER IN THE DIET

Yesterday we were discussing that item of the daily diet variously called "fiber," "roughage," "residue," etc. The normal daily diet usually contains sufficient plant fiber to maintain normal bowel movements, however, we gave some suggestions as to how the amount of fiber can be increased by very slight changes in our every day diet. On the other hand, it may be advisable to decrease the amount of fiber, even severely restrict it in severe diarrhea or following some surgical procedure. Whole grain cereals and breads, fruits, and vegetables are not used in such a reduced fiber diet. It is also believed that milk may increase the intestinal residue and therefore the recommendation is frequently made that milk be boiled, combined with other foods, or omitted entirely. Of course, any diet in which these essential foods are omitted is not adequate nutritionally and therefore should be used for only a few days unless supplemented with vitamins and minerals.

The following is suggested as a starting point for the planning of a diet which is greatly reduced in residue:

Breakfast: strained fruit juice; refined cereal with cream and sugar; egg; white toast and butter; coffee.

Luncheon: clear soup; tender meat, fowl, fish, or egg; potato, rice, macaroni or noodles; white bread with butter; plain dessert; coffee or tea.

Dinner: clear soup or strained juice; tender meat, poultry or fish; potato or substitute; white bread with butter; plain dessert, coffee or tea.

Note: Milk may be used as a beverage when it is tolerated or unless forbidden. The foods from which to choose are:

Eggs: Not fried.

Fats: Butter, margarine, cream.

Fruits: Strained juices only.

Soups: Broth.

Vegetables: white potato without skin; strained vegetable juices.

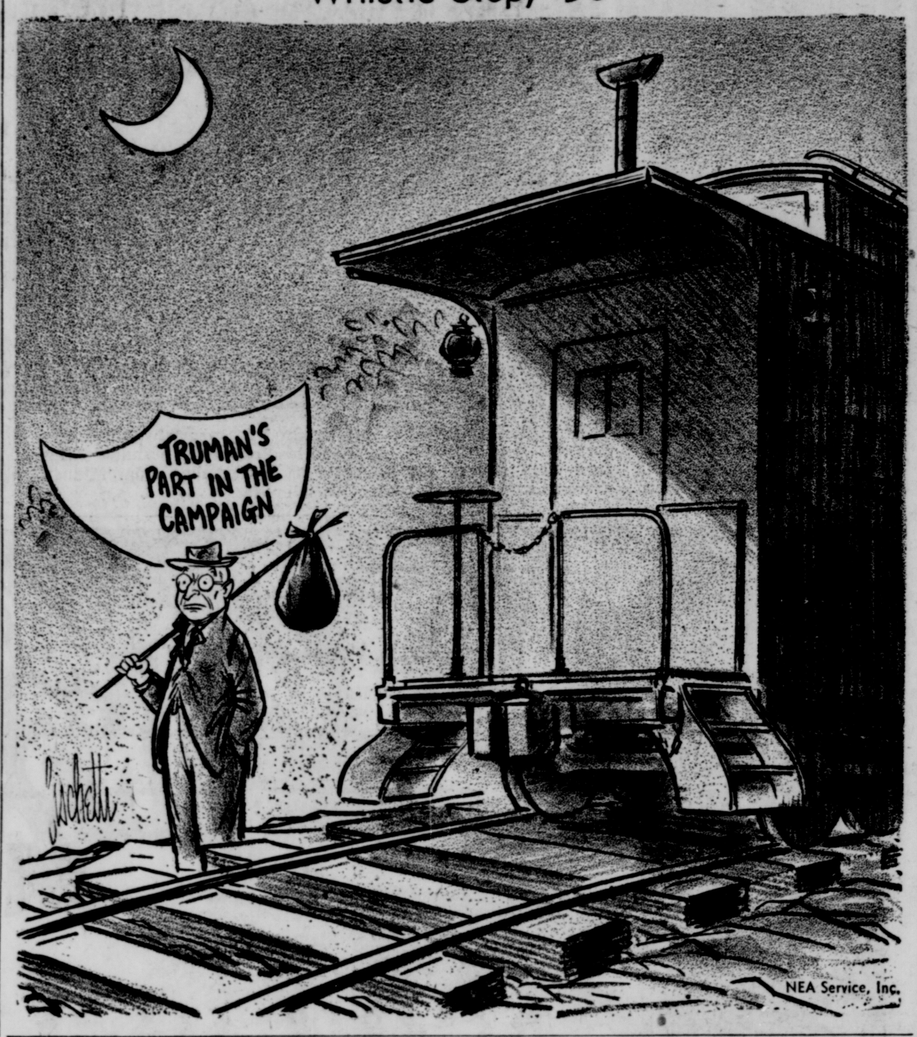

The suggestions given yesterday on a "high residue diet" and today on a "low residue" may prove helpful for, for example, constipation which requires high residue in most cases or the low residue in any stomach or intestinal upset.

Whistle Stop, '56

Edson's Washington News Notebook

Washington (NEA)—In view of all the discussion about whether Vice President Richard M. Nixon is qualified to succeed to the presidency, there's the other question being discussed around Washington. It sums up, in an ever-simplified sense, what this 1956 election campaign is all about. The question:

Whom would you rather have as president in 1961—Nixon, or Sen. Estes Kefauver?

REPUBLICAN National Committee has put out a new, temporary "Handy Facts for Speakers" kit. On loose-leaf cards are a number of arguments for campaign orators to incorporate in their speeches.

Among other things, it lists these examples of how the GOP Promotes Peace":

"Developed fastest operational fighter in the world.

"Plans for atom-powered aircraft well advanced.

"Increased fighting efficiency with fewer soldiers.

"Infantry divisions now have 80 per cent more firepower with only 18 per cent more men than in World War II."

HARRY TRUMAN'S introduction of Gov. Adlai Stevenson at Kansas City may have given the appearance that the big breach between the two, created by Truman at Chicago, is now closed and forgotten. Actually, that isn't true.

Stevenson's intimates say that he is still dismayed by Truman's personal actions toward him—before Chicago, at Chicago and since.

PRESIDENT Eisenhower's first speech idea that the savings from world disarmament be applied to a world aid and reconstruction program in a new administration, pitch.

The previous line, enunciated principally by Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey, is that as soon as savings can be made in defense budgets, the money should be applied to reduction of the U. S. national debt.

THE COMMON impression of the Democratic standard bearers this year is that Gov. Adlai Stevenson is the sophisticated city type who appeals to the Ivy League intellectuals, while Estes Kefauver is a big rube who gets along with country folk.

Staff members working with the two candidates say this characterization isn't accurate. Stevenson went to Princeton for a time, but then went back to Northwestern for his degrees. Kefauver, a Yale Law School graduate, is more entitled to the Ivy League label. Also, Kefauver lives in the city and is in every sense an urbanite, or at least a suburbanite.

Stevenson, on the other hand, lives on his farm at Libertyville, Ill., and is never happier than when he's there. He likes to put on old clothes and do as much of his work there as he can—including office work.

The two candidates are really so different personally, that they complement each other. Kefauver is deliberate and quiet. In a sense he plays straight man to Adlai, who's always bubbling over with enthusiasm.

But the Democratic managers now regard them as a team—the best the convention could have selected — and they're stronger together than either candidate is separately.

SECY. OF LABOR James P. Mitchell doesn't think much of the suggestion by Clothing Workers' President Jacob Potofsky that Mitchell be kept in his present job after Adlai Stevenson's election to the presidency.

"By the time the Democrats elect their next president," says Mitchell, "I'll be too old to be Secretary of Labor."

T. COLEMAN ANDREWS, the National States' Rights Conference preferred candidate for president, is making his first big speech of the campaign at Chicago, October 12. It isn't to be a campaign speech, however. Andrews insists he isn't running, but he hasn't repudiated his nomination, either.

Anyway, he has been booked as principal speaker at a one-day conference on "United Tax Action for Justice." It is being arranged by National Tax Equality Assn., in conjunction with a dozen trade associations.

Tours By Candidates Seen As Indecisive in Elections

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Oct. 4 — What really decides Presidential contests—is it the amount of personal campaigning the candidates do on trips across the country, or is it the sum total of grievances added up as against the benefits felt by the electorate?

Experience in many campaigns as revealed in the history books for decades, throws light on this very point. William Jennings Bryan, for example, actually spoke before millions of voters in 1896 and made longer trips around the country then and in 1900 and 1908 than any presidential candidate before or since. Yet he was beaten all three times by opponents who traveled only a fraction as much.

Hughes and Wilson

The same thing happened in subsequent campaigns. Charles Evans Hughes made a transcontinental swing in 1916, while President Wilson remained for the most part at Shadow Lawn, N. J. But Wilson won.

Again, in 1920, Gov. James M. Cox of Ohio made a tour from coast to coast. Sen. Harding stayed on his front porch at Marion, Ohio, and then made less than a half-dozen speeches in the East, but won just the same.

John W. Davis in 1924 made an extensive journey across the continent, with many speeches en route, but President Coolidge, with only a limited campaign, won. Al Smith in 1928 did more traveling than Herbert Hoover, but lost. Certainly Alfred Landon in 1936, Wendell Wilkie in 1940 and Thomas E. Dewey in 1944 each covered many thousands of miles in their "barnstorming" tours, while President Roosevelt made far less campaign speeches, with appearances in only a few large cities—and won every time. He did travel in 1932 more than President Hoover, and Jim Farley, F. D. R.'s manager, was nervous about his doing so. But in that year, because of the depression, nothing could have prevented a Democratic victory.

Truman and Dewey

While Harry Truman in 1948 made a "whistle-stop" tour, Gov. Dewey traveled just as extensively, and the final results were close.

Certainly there is nothing in the record to suggest that the candidate who goes out and sees the people and shows himself to big audiences wins while his opponent loses by staying at home. The record suggests just the opposite.

But there's a very important reason for Presidential candidates to travel widely, and President Eisenhower is well advised to make a number of personal appearances in different parts of the country. It has everything to do with the morale of state and local political organizations. They need to be pepped up and stimulated to work intensively. The leaders naturally have enough enthusiasm, but it can be increased among the party workers when they see the candidate in action, as he gives to their fellow citizens a demonstration of how he handles current issues. Also, TV nowadays helps to multiply appearances and stir up organizations in other parts of the country on the same night.

Issues and Personalities

How much do issues have to do with the result of campaigns, and what part do personalities play? Issues mean everything and candidates are affective only as they articulate the issues.

Basically it's the sum total of minority groups which makes the majority that decides elections. It's the amount of discontent versus contenment on both economic and emotional issues which tips the scales one way or the other.

Thus, this writer was sitting alone one day at the White House in 1928 with President Coolidge and asked him just why he didn't 'choose to run." The answer was something like this: "Day in and day out a President has to make decisions. He antagonizes one side and pleases the other. You have no idea how many political enmities are accumulated through a President's term of four years."

Before taking office, President Eisenhower had the support of all factions in his own party and many groups in the opposing party. Then he had to make important decisions. The cleavages had to come as different problems were tackled. The day before he vetoed the natural-gas bill, Mr. Eisenhower had friends on both sides of that issue. The day after he took action, he had made new political enemies on one side and perhaps no new friends on the other.

A Professor's View

Emory S. Bogardus, professor of social psychology at the University of California, put it this way in his book entitled "The Making of Public Opinion":

"The election (1948) indicated that public opinion is influenced by the people's occupational and economic interests. Whether they be big businessmen, tenant farmers, young married veterans, humble housewives, or even irritated ethnic group members. Each of these groups tends to vote for the political party that seems to have the most to offer it.

"Group interests and opinion tend to rule elections. Victory is the sum total of a number of group opinions. The minority group opinions favoring Truman added up to 2,000,000 more votes than did the minority group opinions favoring Dewey."

That's why "peace and prosperity" are being emphasized this year by the Republicans, while the Democrats try to call attention to as many irrations and grievances as possible for the final tally.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Ever since Roosevelt began to drive American workers into unions I have collected items from the papers and letters from individuals telling of violence by pickets. I have literally thousands of these. I do not pretend to be even mildly surprised by the brutal unconcern of local and federal governments or the dumb apathy of the general public because at the beginning public opinion held that unions were almost holy institutions and that scabs were outside the law like Dillinger and Machine-gun Kelly. There has been a little stronger resistance in recent years and I think the public at last realizes that the AFL-CIO is a job-trust and racket, preying on the entire public and even extorting tribute from the national government by means of levies collected from workers on government "projects." Those "projects" include the uniforms for men and women of the so-called armed forces.

The federal government created this monster as a political auxiliary of Roosevelt's party and then eagerly permitted the monster to prey on the Treasury. Even in the days when the Manhattan project was hurrying the atom bomb, the government, in frantic newspaper ads appealing for electricians to work at Oak Ridge, Tenn., stipulated that they must be members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. The electricians' initiation fee was $300 and the dues were a flat income tax of from 5 to 15 per cent of the gross, before deductions. The federal and state income taxes allow deductions, but unions never do. Their exactions are worse than income taxes because workers out of jobs must continue to pay dues and a large variety of shakedowns for testimonial "presentations" to the boss racketeers, for fraudulent welfare funds and for political campaigns.

The only other force which has driven our people to violence in the same period is the "integration" decision of the Supreme Court. The period of this violence has run only a few weeks since school began in September and it seems to be abating. This violence has been mild. In Kentucky and Tennessee hill towns, white persons of straight American ancestry have yelled insults at negro children and a few automobiles were "rocked," a practice introduced by Walter Reuther's goons in Michigan. A few automobiles were damaged slightly, but the whole outbreak was petty by comparison with hundreds of wild insurrections of the AFL-CIO which now have the gall to rumble about their code of ethics.

It is an interesting aside that the Negro children in those incidents showed laudable courage just as two Negroes stood forth from the white workers by killing CIO pickets who tried to drive them from their jobs in east St. Louis and Omaha in a strike against packing houses. These men were not scabs. A scab is a strikebreaker on another man's job.

But the commotion over the "violence," mostly verbal, in this "integration" trouble has been enormous. Newspapers flew into hysterics of righteousness when a few stones and epithets were hurled.

The National Guard was called with rifles and cannon in states where the government had yawned at dangerous crimes obviously instigated by central authority in conditions which made it easy to convict the criminals if the prosecutors and governors had been conscientious.

There were more than 3,000 attacks by firearms, dynamiting jobs and severances of cables for public communication in the union war against Southern Bell Telephone in 1955. At the same time, in a strike against Louisville and Nashville, also in several states, bridges were dynamited and burned and trains were blown up. In the Reuther strike against the Kohler Company in Wisconsin, one of the worst in the whole record, there have been 500 cases of riot, assault and vandalism in furtherance of a campaign to enslave workers who refuse to be dragooned. In the Perfect Circle insurrection in Indiana when the governor called out the Guard to uphold government he was damned as a Fascist, the attacks on individuals were countless. It was anarchy imposed by a racket called a union for its own profit. "iolence" is a righteous privilege of this bloodthirsty racket.

At Berryton, Ga., in 1951, CIO pickets overturned a car containing five women employes of a textile mill, killing one of them. Then they sang ribald songs and refused to help others lift the car off their victim.

Twelve were indicted, but only one was tried. He was out and pardoned after 12 months. The employes at Berryton mills have not joined the union yet. There was no indignation in the northern press.

Lady Blacksmith Needed

Tampa, Fla. (AP)—If you're a good stout girl and don't mind dirt and perhaps an occasional kick, there's a pretty good job open for you—as a lady blacksmith. W. E. Combs, who is 76 and one of the few horseshoers left in Florida, wants to retire but can't find anyone to take over his quite active business. Combs figures more women than men ride horses nowadays so "I'm thinking if some good stout girl got interested in it I'd learn her to fit shoes." He says he once thought he had a good prospect but, it turned out, "she weighed only 80 pounds. Wouldn't do."

Numbers Help

Lapeer, Mich. (AP) — Numbers are helping retarded children find their place in society. It's done with the help of the abacus, ancient Oriental counting device, and the modern day adding machine. Some 278 children at the Lapeer State Home and Training School use the abacus and adding machine in primary arithmetic classes. Officials say the program teaches retarded youngsters how to take care of themselves and their finances so that they can step into society.

Why "Good-Time Charlie" Suffers Uneasy Bladder

Such a common thing as unwise eating or drinking may be a source of mild, but annoying bladder irritations—making you feel restless, tense, and uncomfortable. And if restless nights, with nagging backache, headache or muscular aches and pains due to over-exertion, strain or emotional upset, are adding to your misery — don't wait — try Doan's Pills.

Doan's Pills have three outstanding advantages—act in three ways for your speedy return to comfort. 1—They have an easing soothing effect on bladder irritations. 2—A fast pain-relieving action on nagging backache, headaches, muscular aches and pains. 3—A wonderfully mild diuretic action thru the kidneys, tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes. So, get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 60 years. Ask for new, large, economy size and save money. Get Doan's Pills today!

Gardiner

Gardiner, Oct. 4—World-Wide Communion service will be observed at 11 a. m. Sunday at the Reformed Church. Sunday school will be held at 10 a. m. Youth Fellowship will meet at 7 p. m. The Ladies' Aid Society will hold its annual turkey dinner at the church hall Wednesday night, Oct. 10. There will be two servings at 5:30 and 7 p. m. Tickets may be obtained from members.

Parkers Pay $4,100

The city treasurer's office today reported a September parking meter total of $4,100. This was $300 less than collected in August and the same as the September, 1955 total.

West Hurley Vols Talk Yule Plans

West Hurley Fire Company held a regular meeting Tuesday evening with G. Alfred Nussbaum, president, presiding.

The Fire Police squad under leadership of Capt. Arthur K. Rice reported on the recent benefit on behalf of the fire police to raise funds to equip the fire police with necessary equipment for performance of their duties.

President Nussbaum discussed plans for the annual Christmas party given by the firemen for the children of West Hurley fire district. Committees were appointed.

Chief McNally urged all firemen to report to the next regular department drill on Wednesday, Oct. 10, at 7 p. m.

Two-way radio was again discussed and a petition is being circulated asking the board of supervisors to take action. Residents of the West Hurley Fire District are requested to sign the petition. The fire company has previously gone on record as being 100 per cent in favor of the plan.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, Nov. 6.

Area Dealer Gets West Point Milk Contract

Prospect Dairy of Stamford, which has a local branch plant on East Chester street extension, has been awarded a contract for the delivery of milk to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, it was announced today by Hoyt L. Swain, president.

According to President Swain, the contract calls for the daily delivery of 3,500 quarts of milk to West Point over a period of the next three months.

Since its formation, Prospect Dairy has had U. S. Public Health Service inspection of its milk supplies. In addition to this highest form of inspection, the dairy also was approved by U. S. Army Medical officers prior to contract consideration.

This contract, Prospect Dairy officials report, comes at an opportune time as it will assure greater stability for the increasing work force of Prospect Dairy after a successful summer season.

Mr. Swain also said that everyone at the local dairy is proud to be supplying this basic food to the country's future military leaders.

Complete Audit Of Nine County School Districts

Examination of the fiscal affairs of nine school districts in Ulster county are among a number of towns, villages, school, fire and other special districts throughout the state which have been completed, it was announced today by State Comptroller Arthur Levitt.

The reports which have been completed include: former Central School District No. 3, town of Marbletown; Common School District No. 11, town of Plattekill; former Union Free School District No. 2 and former Common School Districts No. 3, 4, 5 and 8, town of Rochester; former Union Free School District No. 1, town of Rosendale, and former Union Free School District No. 1, town of Wawarsing.

Copies of the examination reports have been sent to the clerk and other officials of each of the counties, towns, villages and districts examined. Since the reports are a part of the public record they are available for review by interested citizens.

A copy of each of the reports is also on file at the Department of Audit and Control in Albany and is also available for public inspection.

What No Horse?

Cheyenne, Wyo. (AP)—An invitation received by Gov. Milward L. Simpson to assist in the receiving line at a party given by California Gov. Goodwin Knight called for a black tie. Simpson replied, "Why, may I inquire, can't I wear my chaps and spurs, like all cowboys do?"

Court Has Three O & W Proposals

New York, Oct. 4 (AP)—Three proposals for the future of the bankrupt New York, Ontario and Western Railway were pending before a federal court today.

The U. S. government asked yesterday that reorganization proceedings be dismissed so a receiver could be appointed to operate the line.

Counsel for Lewis D. Freeman, the railway's trustee, asked the court to approve an immediate sale of the operational part of the line and abandonment of other properties.

The state of New York, through the attorney-general's department—asked for a 30-day stay of action so that the state could study the issues and possibly formulate a workable reorganization plan.

Asst. U. S. Atty. Alfred P. O'Hara said the government did not want to "junk" the road. He said that, under a receiver, the government could press tax claims amounting to more than six million dollars and other creditors also could act. Reorganization proceedings began in 1937.

Oakes said the railroad's operations would collapse under a receiver. He said the result would be "little, if anything, of value" for creditors with claims equal or superior to the government's.

Federal Judge Edward A. Conger reserved decision.

John Rolfe, who married Pochahonts, came to Virginia from Bermuda. He arrived when a storm-tossed ship of English pilgrims was blown onto the reefs of St. George.

Equalization Rate Set for Ellenville

A final state equalization rate of 46 per cent for 1956 has been established for the village of Ellenville, it was announced today by the State Board of Equalization and Assessment.

Ellenville was one of 111 villages whose tentative rates were considered by the board at a hearing Oct. 1. None of these villages sent representatives to the hearing, it was reported.

It was also announced that tentative 1956 equalization rates have been established for 18 more villages. There were none in Ulster county included in this group.

Accuse Two Of Arming Assassin

Manugua, Nicaragua, Oct. 4 (AP)—Two Nicaraguans—one an exile in El Salvador—have been accused of arming President Anastasio Somoza's assassin with a gun bought in New Orleans.

Luis Somoza, son of the slain strongman who as president of Congress succeeded to the national presidency, said El Salvador would be asked to extradite Noel Bermudez, a former army officer charged with buying the revolver in the United States last April.

$666 Reward Offered

The army offered a $666 reward for the capture of Edwin Castro Rodriguez, 29, suspected of passing the weapon from Bermudez to Rigoberto Lopez Perez, who gunned down the elder Somoza at Leon Sept. 21. Perez was slain on the spot. Somoza died last Saturday in a Panama Canal zone hospital.

Somoza said Castro Rodriguez, son of the late Gen. Carlos Castro Wassmer, was a link for exiles in El Salvador and other Central American republics and Mexico.

Bermudez bought the gun, a .38 caliber Smith and Wesson revolver, from the Sloan Army and Sporting Goods store in New Orleans last April 3, Somoza said.

Nicaraguan authorities had asked the FBI to trace the serial number of the gun.

Agree on Dredging Costs

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)—The Syracuse Post-Standard said in editions today that the United States and Canada had agreed on division of costs for dredging the north channel of the St. Lawrence river at Cornwall Island. The newspaper said the United States was seeking a guarantee that Canada would not build an all-Canadian seaway in a deepened channel until there was need for one.

In Newfoundland

Thomas J. Walsh, aviation machinist's mate second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Walsh of 218 Tremper avenue, Kingston, is serving with Airborne Early Warning Squadron 11, temporarily based at the U. S. Naval Station, Argentia, Newfoundland. The squadron is one of several recently commissioned to give our military forces an airborne early warning capability.

Sign Agreement on Center

Paris, Oct. 4 (AP) — Belgium and the United States signed an agreement today to set up a training center for aviation engineers from the Atlantic Pact nations at Rhode-St. Genese, near Brussels. A two-year course will be given 20 students under the direction of Dr. R Paul Harrington, on leave from the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, at Troy, N. Y. Belgium and the United States will finance the first course jointly. After that, Belgium and NATO are expected to continue paying for the center. Another such training center was organized last year at The Hague.

Says U. S. Forces Ready for Action

Seoul, Oct. 4 (AP)—Adm. Felix B. Stump, U. S. commander in the Pacific, said today American troops manning positions in Korea are ready for action and "I think we can lick the Communists anywhere in the world."

"We are determined not to be pushed around anywhere," the admiral told newsmen during a tour of frontline positions.

"If the free nations stick together as they are pledged to do, we will not lose."

Stump flew by helicopter to an outpost on the border of the demilitarized zone which divides Korea. He inspected Communist positions through powerful glasses while on a tour of U. S. forces.

WOODSTOCK NEWS

By RICHARD E. THIBAUT, Jr.

Governor Proclaims P-TA Member Week

October is "Membership Enrollment Month" for all Parent-Teacher Associations. Everyone interested in promoting the welfare of children is invited to join local P-TA units at this time.

Membership chairmen in this area: Mrs. John E. Marcato, Woodstock; Mrs. M. Griffin Irwin of Shokan, Onteora; Mrs. Louis Otto, Kingston School 3; Mrs. Thomas F. Higgins, Kingston (George Washington School); Miss N. Leona Hogan, Saugerties; Mrs. Clarence Anderson, West Hurley.

In connection with P-TA enrollment month, the governor of New York state has issued the following proclamation:

"Our schools have benefited greatly from the devoted work of the Parent-Teacher Associations.

With more than 10,000,000 members across the country—a half million in New York state alone—these associations have focused public attention on the need for more schools, for more and better-trained and better-paid teachers, for higher educational standards in general, and for broader education opportunity for all.

They have created a wider public understanding of our moral and financial responsibility for providing our children with the best that education offers. They have been in the vanguard in urging and encouraging well-qualified men and women to serve as school trustees and as members of boards of education.

At this critical time in our American system of education, the work of the Parent-Teacher Association takes on added significance.

Church Notes

Woodstock, Oct. 3 — World Wide Communion will be observed in the Lutheran Church, Sunday, Oct. 7, at the 11 a. m. service of worship and inspiration. The pastor, the Rev. Olney E. Cook, will speak on the theme, "The Bread of Life," John 6:35. The choir will sing a special number. "Bring Him Thy Burden," by Nolte. Sunday school meets at 10 a. m.

All are welcome to the services of the church.

The "Let Your Clothing Speak for Christ" appeal which is sponsored by the young people of the Sunday school, is still open. Anyone having clothing may bring it to Sunday school or church. The work and the interest of the Young People is greatly appreciated.

The Women's Missionary Society meeting has been postponed until Oct. 11.

The Rev. Garnett M. Wilder will preach a sermon titled: "No Time for Timidity" in all churches of the Woodstock Parish on Sunday, Oct. 7. This sermon deals with the need for Christians to witness to their faith in these times. It points out that in such a day as this there is no time to be timid about our faith in Jesus Christ. This day and age needs a militant church. This community needs a church which is eager to share its faith with scores of incoming residents, and with many more who have been here for some time but who have not been reached by the church.

Sunday, Oct. 7, is World-Wide Communion Sunday, when Christians of all faiths and creeds will be observing holy communion together. Millions of Christians all over the world will be drawn together in fellowship by the awareness of the essential bond of unity in Christ which holds people together. Everyone is invited to worship and receive holy communion this Sunday.

The Methodist, Episcopal, Lutheran, Dutch Reformed Churches of Woodstock are cooperating in a religious census of the Woodstock area beginning Sunday afternoon. It is hoped that the information gained will enable the churches to find and minister to our people in a more effective manner. Residents will help the churches greatly by giving the person taking the census in their area all the information desired.

Town Briefs

Woodstock, Oct. 3—The Woodstock Town Board will meet Tuesday, Oct. 9, to discuss the town budget.

The American Legion Auxiliary Post, 1026, will hold its regular monthly meeting Monday, Oct. 8, at the Legion Hall at 8 p. m.

There will be a meeting of the Bearsville-Shady area of the Onteora School district, Oct. 15, called by the school district, at the Odd Fellows Hall in Bearsville at 8 p. m. There will also be a meeting Oct. 17 for the Lake Hill-Willow section at the former Lake Hill School, at 8 p. m.

The first meeting of the Adult Scouts of the Woodstock Neighborhood will be held at the Woodstock School Tuesday, Oct. 9, at 8 p. m. All leaders, coleaders and members of the troop committees are urged to attend.

GOP Club Hears Wilson, Candidates

Woodstock, Oct. 3—Fifty persons attended the meeting of the Woodstock Republican Club Wednesday at Deanies'. Kenneth L. Wilson, assemblyman for the district and vice chairman of the Ulster County Republican Committee, spoke and explained three changes in the election law regarding qualification of voters. He also introduced the county candidates of office.

Assemblyman Wilson introduced Conrad J. Heiselman who urged the reelection of Wilson and told of the importance of seniority rights to Ulster county.

Wilson then spoke again and urged the getting out of the voters for the coming election. He talked on the smear by the Democrats against Attorney General Javits, candidate for U. S. Senator and against Vice President Nixon and he gave a comprehensive history of Nixon's early and political life.

He then introduced the county Republican candidates and strongly urged their election. They include: Claude Bell, supervisor of the town of Olive, for sheriff; Charles Gaffney of Kingston for surrogate; and Michael Galiatta of Glasco for coroner.

Anthony DeLisio, county chairman of the New York State Committee for Eisenhower-Nixon and presidential elector for the Ulster District was the final speaker.

Frank Antenucci, president of the club, presided and before the meeting closed a resolution was passed extending best wishes to Thomas Carey, senior committeeman of Woodstock, who is in Kingston Hospital with a broken leg, and expressing regrets he couldn't attend the meeting.

Scout News

Woodstock, Oct. 3—The following Boy Scouts from this village went to Boy Scout day at West Point Sunday: Charles White, Terry Van Valkenburgh, Timmy France, Richard Mellert, Charles Hughes, Albert Holumzer, Robin Cantine, Jan Van Wagenen, Steve Ruff, Paul Smith, Steve Gilligan, Danny Wilbur, Eddie Varney, David Van de Bogart, Bob Wickham, Paul Stolpinski, Allen Lund, Robert, Cappy and Homer Foster. They were accompanied by the following adults: Richard Braen, Charles Hughes, Hank Sprenger and Walter Van Wagenen.

Final Reports Given On Fire Anniversary

Woodstock, Oct. 3—The final reports by the committee of the 5th Anniversary of Woodstock Fire Company No. 1 were given at the regular meeting Monday at the Fire Hall and the committee was discharged with a rising vote of thanks.

The company has announced that it has received permission from the Board of Fire Commissioners to retain the old Ford pumper, to be used as an emergency truck.

It was decided at the meeting to form a committee to work on uniforms, however, no appointments to the committee were announced.

The company is making arrangements for the mounting of the old tire from a locomotive which was formerly used as a fire alarm, under the tower behind the Town Hall, where the present fire siren is located. The new York Central Railroad has donated rails to be used in the mounting of the old fire alarm.

School News

Arthur Timouze is a new pupil in the first grade of the Woodstock School. His father is an IBM construction worker.

Connie Homrighous has left to attend school in Connecticut.

There is a possibility of an Adult Educational course in rug hooking being formed. If so, it will be next Monday, Oct. 8, at 7:30 p. m., at the Woodstock School. There are still a few openings still available in the Tuesday night art class for adults.

This has been a busy week at the Woodstock School. On Tuesday the Boy Scout Board of Review met and the Boy Scout Committee also held a meeting. On Wednesday evening Madame Juana Manorska's course in interpretive dancing for women was held. The PTA meeting is on Thursday, Oct. 4.

There is a strong possibility that there may be a school band, beginning next week. Questionnaires are being sent home to the parents of pupils in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades. Answers from parents will determine whether or not there is to be a school band.

Report Differs On Doria Mishap

New York, Oct. 4 (AP)—Capt. Piero Calamai of the Italian liner Andrea Doria today gave his account of the ship's disastrous collision with the Swedish liner Stockholm. It was in direct opposition to that of the officer who was directing the Stockholm.

The veteran, 59-year-old skipper made these assertions during testimony being taken preparatory to Federal Court trial of damage suits totaling more than 40 million dollars:

The Andread Doria encountered fog about 3 p. m. July 25, the date of the collision, and remained in it until the crash at 11:09 p. m. He ordered every precaution taken for proceeding in fog.

The Andrea Doria sighted the Stockholm by radar first at a distance of 17 miles. They were traveling toward each other on parallel courses, right side to right side. The Stockholm was four degrees to the right of the Andrea Doria.

A constant radar check was maintained, and at a little less than eight miles the Stockholm was 14 degrees to the Andrea Doria's right.

Capt. Calamai estimated the ships would pass to the right of each other about a mile apart. Nevertheless, he ordered his vessel to turn four degrees to the left.

Search Pressed For Last Bandit In Plant Holdup

Buffalo, Oct. 4 (AP)—Police today pressed a search for one of three bandits who took part in the $1,761 holdup of a bottling plant here yesterday.

Two of the bandits were arrested several hours after the holdup on the tip from an alert newsboy who took down the license number of the getaway car.

Money Still Missing

The money, however, was not recovered.

Charged with first degree robbery in the holdup of the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. plant were: Tofano Anzalone, 28, and Neil Squitieri, 21.

The third man, believed by the police to be the driver of the getaway car, was not identified.

Five Step Up in IBM Posts

Edward C. Byman | John H. Foley | Edward W. Higgins | Joseph P. Murphy Jr. | Philip L. Pearce

Appointments to five key posts in Kingston Military Products Division were announced today by International Business Machines Corporation.

They are:

Edward C. Byman, Kingston, to division manager of the eastern sector of field engineering site activities.

John H. Foley, Mt. Marion, to product engineer for field test equipment design.

Philip L. Pearce, Woodstock, to project manager of plant engineering design.

Mr. Byman, who is a native of Stratford, Conn., began his association with IBM in July 1950, as a customer engineer in Hartford, Conn. In August 1952 he was transferred to Poughkeepsie where he was first a field engineering trainee and then an instructor.

Mr. Byman served as field engineering supervisor in Savannah, Ga., from July 1953, until his assignment to set up final test training for project high in Poughkeepsie in February 1954. He became technical engineer in June 1954, and, in January 1955, was transferred to Kingston as a defense field engineer assistant.

Mr. Byman, who served with the U. S. Army Air Force from 1943 to 1946, was awarded the Air Medal and the Distinguished Flying Cross. He received a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering from the University of Connecticut in 1950 and is a member of the Tau Beta Pi and Eta Kappa Nu, professional engineering fraternities.

Mr. an Mrs. Byman reside at 25 Janet street, Kingston, with their three children, Sharon, 9; Edward, 6; and Robert 1.

Mr. Foley is a graduate of Massena High School and Clarkson College of Technology where he earned a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering in 1948.

He joined IBM in August 1948 as a student engineer in Endicott and was transferred to Poughkeepsie in July 1949. Subsequently, he held positions as associate engineer, components group leader of project high, manager of Kingston electrical laboratory and project engineer

Mr. Foley was appointed manager of site test equipment engineering in June 1956.

Mr. Foley is a charter member of the Saugerties Junior Chamber of Commerce and is a director and treasurer of the Mt. Marion Civic Association. He and his wife Kathleen have one daughter, Mary Ellen, who is one year old.

Mr. Higgins joined IBM in October 1954 and worked in Poughkeepsie until his transfer to Kingston in February 1955. He is a graduate of Brooklyn Technical High School and of Lehigh University where he received a bachelor of science degree in industrial engineering.

Mr. Higgins served two years with the U. S. Army. Mr. and Mrs. Higgins have two children, Thomas E. and Beverly J.

Mr. Murphy, who has been with IBM since 1950, worked as a customer engineer in the New York city downtown office until January 1952, when he was assigned to the Poughkeepsie engineering laboratory.

Mr. Murphy became group leader of the XD-1 arithmetic element frame test for project high in 1953, and was transferred to product engineering as project leader of XD-2 in May 1955. He was named project engineer in December 1955.

Mr. Murphy, who was graduated from Cardinal Hayes High School in 1945, received a bachelor of electrical engineering degree from City College of New York. He and Mrs. Murphy have a daughter, Kathryn Anne, who was born in December 1955.

Mr. Pearce, who was born in Shelby county, Ky., received his bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering from the University of Kentucky. He served three years with the Army Air Force and joined IBM at Kingston as an electrical design engineer in May, 1955.

Mr. Pearce subsequently held positions as associate engineer and manager of plant engineering electrical design. He is a member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearce have two daughters, Pamela Jean, four years old, and Deborah Lea, two months.

Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear sister and daughter, Agnes Gillespie, who passed away three years ago October 4, 1956.

It is not tears at the graveside shed,
That tell how the heart is torn
But the lonely tears of after years
In sorrow so silently borne.
And at night when all is silent
And sleep forsakes our eyes,
My thoughts are out on that lonely grave
Where our dear daughter and sister lies.

Signed,
Loving MOTHER, FATHER, SISTERS and BROTHERS.

NAACP Case Nears End

Tyler, Tex., Oct. 4 (AP)—The state neared completion today in its efforts to put the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People out of business in Texas. The NAACP was expected to get a chance to give its evidence this afternoon against a temporary restraining order issued Sept. 21 stopping all NAACP operations in Texas. Picket activity at Beaumont's Lamar Tech, a state-supported school integrated this year, lessened last night after a new crackdown on pro-segregation demonstrations came out of a conference between Texas Rangers and local officers.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our many neighbors, friends and relatives, the priests of St. Mary's and St. Peter's, also the Christian Mothers Society of St. Peter's for their acts of kindness and expression of sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement in the death of my wife and our mother, Mary E. Newburgh.

Signed,
HUSBAND & DAUGHTERS

George Bancroft Dies; Veteran Actor Was 74

Santa Monica, Calif., Oct. 4 (AP)—Veteran actor George Bancroft, one of the roughest and toughest of Hollywood's "heavies," is dead at 74. After an illness of three weeks, he died Tuesday in a hospital.

Bancroft was an actor most of his life, and even when he served for many years in the navy he set up portable stages on deck and served as the impressario of all manner of programs, using navy talent.

In S-A Conflict

He went to sea as a teen-ager on merchant ships, later joined the navy and was a gunner aboard the cruiser Baltimore in the battle of Manila Bay during the Spanish-American War.

In 1900 when the USS Oregon struck a submerged dock off the China coast, Bancroft swam beneath the hull of the vessel to learn the extent of the damage. For this feat of daring and skill he received an appointment to Annapolis, but he found the restrictions too confining and resigned and headed for Broadway.

For 15 years he played important roles in many successful shows, and in 1922 launched his movie career. He became famous for his rugged characterizations and for 20 years was one of Hollywood's busiest actors.

2 Sailors Die Four Persons Are Hurt in Crash

Lakehurst, N. J., Oct. 4 (AP)—Two sailors were killed and four other persons injured today in a three-car crash near the naval air station here.

State police said a carload of five sailors, headed north on Ocean county Rt. 547, tried to pass another car and crashed headon into a third one coming from the opposite direction.

Killed were Ronald L. Olsen, 19, of Oregon, Wis., driver of sailors' car, and Donald E. Fisher, 19, of 473 Oliver street, Tonawanda, N. Y., a passenger.

One is Serious

The three other sailors were injured and taken to the army hospital at Ft. Dix. One of them —Raymond A. Sosa, 18, of Los Angeles—is in serious condition with rib fractures, a possible head injury, cuts and bruises.

The others are Arthur Wolf, 22, of 168 119th avenue, Jamaica, N. Y., and James H. Ashworth, 17, of Diboll, Tex.

The driver of the southbound car, John Latka, 45, of Lake Hurst, was taken to Paul Kimball Hospital in nearby Lakewood.

The accident occurred near Whiteville on the road running along the eastern edge of the huge air station where all the sailors were stationed.

State police said Miss Suzanne Moore, 19, of Lakewood, was driving the car the sailors tried to pass. She escaped injury.

U. S. Is Hopeful Of Compromise On Iceland Base

Washington, Oct. 4 (AP)—State Department officials were described as moderately hopeful today that a compromise can eventually be worked out with Iceland to continue U. S. operation of a big NATO airbase there.

Iceland's foreign minister, Emil Jonsson, arranged a news conference today to explain his government's position on its demand for withdrawal of all U. S. forces now stationed at the Keflavik base.

Since arriving here Sunday, Jonsson has held a series of talks with Secretary of State Dulles and Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr.

These talks officially described as "frank and friendly," wound up yesterday with an announcement that the United States and Iceland agreed to begin negotiation in Iceland in mid-November on Iceland's demand.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Oct. 4 (AP)—The stock market moved into lower ground today, bringing at least a temporary halt to what had looked like a major rally.

Tuesday and yesterday the market scored substantial advances which recovered about one-fifth of the ground lost in its August-September decline.

Today key stocks took losses of a few cents to $1 a share or more in quiet trading.

Some prices were: U. S. Steel off 50 cents at $67, American Telephone off 87 cents at $168.75, Chrysler off 67 at $73.67, Youngstown Sheet & Tube off $1 at $98.23, General Electric off 50 cents at $58, International Nickel off $1.50 at $102.12, and International Paper off $1.25 at $113.50.

TB Rehabilitation Group Meets Oct. 9

The regular meeting of the rehabilitation committee of the Ulster County TB and Health Association will be held Tuesday, Oct. 9, at 8 p. m. at the TB Hospital.

Routine business, including committee reports and arrangements for the coming sale of patients' articles will be discussed.

All members are requested to attend.

UN Secretary

ing a UN-sponsored negotiating group.

Hammarskjold has had long talks with Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov, Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi, Lloyd and Lodge, French Delegate Bernard Cornut-Gentile and other council members.

Shepilov Sidesteps

The delegates mostly have had little to say about their plans. After his talk with Hammarskjold late yesterday, Shepilov chatted with newsmen but sidestepped all questions about the Soviet position in the dispute. However, the Soviet press has backed Egypt completely and at the first London conference on the Suez Shepilov refused to endorse the plan for international control of the waterway.

Fawzi also declined to disclose his plans. He merely said that he wants to be helpful to the council and "to build up things and not tear them down."

Shepilov and Fawzi met for a private talk after they had talked individually with Hammarkjold. Diplomatic circles here felt sure Russia would support Egypt fully even to the extent of using the veto, if necessary, to kill any proposal opposed by the Egyptians.

CWV Reelects Rogers Murphy As Commander

Rogers Murphy was reelected commander of St. Ignatius Loyola Post, Catholic War Veterans, by the ex-servicemen whom he led for the past year.

In choosing him Monday for the second time, the CWV praised him for his untiring efforts since the organization of the local post, which recently held its first annual dance at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Vice commanders elected were former Mayor William F. Edelmuth, Edward Tomczyk and John McCullough.

The Rev. James A. Dunnigan was chosen again as chaplain, Dr. Habeeb Maroon as medical officer and Attorney John Larkin as judge advocate.

Present at the election was Augustus Polito, Albany county commander.

The next meeting of the post will be on Monday, Nov. 5, at St. Ann's Hall, Sawkill.

Train Is Attacked

Jerusalem, Oct. 4 (AP)—Israeli officials said the crowded Haifa-Jerusalem passenger train was attacked last night by rifle and machinegun fire from across the Jordan border. The train engineer was the only casualty. The wounded man, hit in the leg by a ricocheting bullet, put on full speed and piloted the train for another 6 miles until it reached Lydda. The incident occurred in the Israeli coastal plain, near Eyal settlement about 35 miles south of Haifa.

Thomas Plunket Named Counsel To Commission

Attorney Thomas J. Plunket has been appointed counsel to the Commissioners of Appraisal of Neversink Riparian Sections 3, 4 and 5. This is the first time in the history of New York City Water Supply Proceedings, dating back to 1905, that the commissioners have appointed their own counsel or attorney.

This Commission, consisting of Elias H. Jacobs, Chairman, former Democratic Alderman of the City of New York, Louis V. Mills, former Republican Mayor of the City of Middletown, and Raymond J. Snyder, former Republican member of the Westchester County Board of Supervisors, and Alderman of the City of Yonkers, felt that it was necessary to obtain expert legal advice in the trial of a most difficult claim now being held before this Commission.

The claim is one filed by Colonial Syndicate, Inc., and The Philwold Company, owners of 8817 acres of land and 4.53 miles of river frontage in the County of Sullivan. Claimant places a value of approximately $1,000,000 on the property affected by the diversion of the waters of the Neversink River.

The City of New York claims that it acquired certain rights in those waters from the Rockland Light and Power Company in 1951, which contention is disputed by claimant.

More than 200 exhibits have been placed in evidence before this Commission in the six days of trial, and it is anticipated that many more exhibits and considerable more testimony will be brought forth by both parties. These exhibits consist of all types of legal documents, ancient documents and patents dating back to the period before the American Revolution, and raise complicated questions of law. Sound legal knowledge, experience and research will be required to resolve the complicated questions of law involved.

The Rockland Light and Power Company have not yet entered into the trial of this claim, but since under the agreement of settlement this company agreed to indemnify the City of New York, it may well be that they will enter the proceedings at some stage in order to defend their rights and position.

It is believed that this is the largest single claim ever presented before any Commission appointed to hear claims in this section of the country. It is one of the few areas in the State of New York which can claim that it is undisturbed since the Indians inhabited the area and boast of the fact that virgin timber still grows within its boundaries.

The owners have built one of the largest trout hatcheries in the East, and the world's finest hunting lodge.

The Commissioners today stated:

"We are exceptionally pleased that we have been able to enlist the services of Thomas J. Plunket, an extremely well qualified attorney, to assist the Commission in clarifying the many involved legal questions existing in this case. In proceedings as involved as this one it is necessary for the Commission to get the most expert legal advice. We are happy that Thomas J. Plunket has accepted the appointment of the Commission and joined our staff."

Commissioner Snyder added to the Commission's statement that Thomas J. Plunket was selected for his legal ability without consideration of his political connections.

Saugerties to Offer Journalism Class

A new course, journalism, is now being offered as part of the Adult Education program of Saugerties Central School.

Robert Schron, Saugerties Daily Post editor will act as the instructor. The course should be helpful to anyone interested in journalism in general, or to a person who writes publicity material for any organization.

Since this course was not planned in time for the regular registration, anyone who is interested in taking it is asked to write Miss A. Frances Larned, assistant director, Saugerties High School, or telephone her. A minimum of 12 people is needed to start the course.

Bells to Be Replaced

The famed Bow Bells of London's church of St. Mary-le-Bow, historic since the time of William the Conqueror, will soon be replaced. They were destroyed by Nazi bombs in World War 2.

Former Tax Head Would Find Other Way for Revenue

Syracuse, Oct. 4 (AP)—T. Coleman Andrews, former internal revenue commissioner, says the nation's income tax is a violation of constitutional guarantees against illegal search and seizure.

He told the Northeastern Poultry Producers Council yesterday the tax was of doubtful legality and "certainly is not morally right."

Andrews said his name would be on the ballot in 16 states as an independent candidate for president but he did not advocate a third party.

He said he believed in the two-party system but wanted one of those parties to return to "constitutional government."

Never Sought Better Way

He said of the Internal Revenue Department: "They'll search right down to the bottom of the chicken coop to try and pin something on you."

He also told the council:

"It is utterly false for anyone to say the country can't get along without the income tax . . . nobody has ever conducted one day of research to determine if there is not a better way of obtaining revenue.

"The whole income tax plan is part of a well-thought-out scheme to wreck the country on the rocks of extravagance."

He said the Communist Manifesto predicted the fall of capitalism and "I think there are people who want to see us wrecked on these shoals (of extravagance.)"

Adults To Register For Courses Oct. 11

Tillson, Oct. 3—Registration for Adult Education courses to take place at the Tillson school this fall will be held at the school auditorium Thursday, Oct. 11, from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. This announcement was made following a special meeting of the adult education advisory committee Monday evening at the school, with George Fernandez, director of the activity.

The committee has discussed the plausibility of having adult education classes this year, then in general, talked about what courses seemed to be in demand. Previous to the meeting, members of the advisory committee had contacted many residents to get a cross-section view of what the people desired in the line of adult education.

After some discussion, it was said that the following courses will be considered: child psychology, photography, sewing, mixed chorus, ceramics and physical education for women. The number of people registering for a course will determine whether or not it will be given. An average of eight persons must attend each session, and it is desired to have a minimum of ten sign up for each course.

Those on the advisory committee included Mrs. G. A. Ryerson, Mrs. G. Newman, Mrs. G. Burchell, Mrs. J. Guerreri, Mrs. R. Waddell, Mrs. W. Born, Mrs. H. Mansfield, Mrs. G. Brown, Joseph Engert and H. E. Harvey.

All local residents desiring to take advantage of the adult education courses this year at the school are urged to register for the course of their choice.

Missionary Union Parley October 17

The annual fall conference of the Reformed Church Missionary Union, Classis of Ulster, will be held on October 17, at the Flatbush Reformed Church, Route 32, north of Kingston.

Registration will be at 10 a. m. and luncheon at noon.

Speakers will be Kenneth Young of Brewton, Ala., Miss Rachel Jackson of Iraq and Mrs. Chester Meengs of the Department of Women's Work.

Registration Dates Given for Esopus

Port Ewen, Oct. 4—Registration Days for the Town of Esopus were announced today.

Voters may register Saturday, Oct. 6, from 7 a. m. until 10 p. m. and on Saturday, Oct. 13, from 1 p. m. to 10 p. m.

Polling places will be located at the Town of Esopus Auditorium and Beichert's Port Ewen Garage for voters in the two Port Ewen election districts.

Polio Outbreak May Cancel Grid Contests

Potsdam, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)—School officials said the Northern New York Scholastic Football League may cancel the remainder of its games this year because of a polio outbreak.

They said yesterday the action might come if high schools continue to postpone games because of the 51 reported cases of polio in St. Lawrence county.

One of four games scheduled Saturday was played.

The Tupper Lake-Canton game scheduled for this week has been called off.

The latest victim of polio in the county is Bernard W. Sullivan Jr., 18, of Whitesboro, a student at Potsdam State Teachers College. The school said the case was not paralytic.

Thomas M. Barrington, dean of men, said Sullivan had not taken a scheduled Salk vaccine shot two weeks ago at a campus clinic.

The school said a majority of the 935 students had received at least one Salk shot.

Weekly Food Review

(By The Associated Press)

The housewife who steers clear of high price tags on beef and other meats this weekend will find comfort in the more moderate cost of chickens and eggs.

Beef prices are expected to head lower soon, but for the moment are still at high levels. Wholesale prices eased off this week and steers sold cheaper, but for the most part this shift has not yet reached the retail level.

In some areas where steaks and roasts shot extraordinarily high, there will be some reduction by this weekend. In other areas, however, prices will go up before cheaper wholesale supplies arrive on the local store counter.

Lamb and pork also bring reduced wholesale prices now and should be cheaper by next week. Until then there will be little change in what the butcher charges his retail customers.

Chickens, in both frying and broiling size, are the most widely featured weekend special. In many areas they are selling several cents per pound lower than last week.

The decline in egg prices, which government price supporters are trying to stem, has hit the retiail market. One nation-wide chain, which last week sold large grade A eggs in New York at 75 cents a dozen, brought the price down to 69 cents.

Cabbage, onions and potatoes are the outstanding buys on vegetable counters, government market observers report. Also selling at good prices are celery, corn, peppers, tomatoes and spinach. Cauliflower and eggplant are moderately priced and lettuce fluctuates according to the quality and amount of local supplies.

On fruit counters, apples and grapes still attract the thrifty shoppers. Florida oranges are also starting to come on the eastern market but not in sufficient quantity to bring prices substantially lower.

Favors Mohawk Lines

Washington, Oct. 4 (AP) — An examiner for the Civil Aeronautics Board has recommended that Mohawk Airlines be authorized to operate a non-stop service between New York-Newark and Syracuse, N. Y. The proposed service would be on a non-subsidy basis for three years. Examiner James S. Keith recommended applications of Colonial, Capital and United Airlines covering the same route be dismissed. The examiner's recommendation becomes final if no objections are entered within 10 days of the announcement yesterday.

Milk Plants Are Against Paying Different Prices

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP) — Spokesmen say dealers they represent object to any premium payment to producers for milk to be bottled for sale upstate.

Attorneys representing large dealer groups said at a federal-state hearing yesterday that plants serving upstate areas and metropolitan New York were intermingled. They held it would be unfair to have them paying different prices to producers.

George O'Brien, economist for the Dairymen's League, had endorsed the premium payment in his testimony on the ground it would be a "direct delivery differential" to compensate producers for cost of getting their milk into the metropolitan area.

The hearing is a continuing one on a proposal to extend a metropolitan New York milk-marketing order to unregulated areas upstate.

The extension would provide for payment of an additional 15 cents a hundredweight (46.5 qts.) to producers delivering to plants handling milk for the upstate area.

Attorneys Sidney Winton, Harry Polikoff and Edmund Burke represented the dealer groups at the hearing.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Weak 2 Bid Helps Foes

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

West's weak opening bid of two diamonds was an attempt to make the bidding difficult for the opponents. There is much to be said for the weak two-bid, but it should be based on a six-card suit and high cards that come very close to a minimum opening bid.

In this case, West did not have a proper hand for the weak two-bid. If he had passed, the opponents would have reached a normal game contract, and no bones would have been broken. As it was, West drove the opponents into a difficult slam contract, which South proceeded to make by careful play.

South won the first trick with the ace of diamonds and drew three rounds of trumps, noting that East bid a natural trump trick.

Suspecting the club situation, South led the queen to dummy's ace and returned the jack of clubs through East. East covered with the king and South ruffed.

The rest was easy. South ran the four spades, discarding a diamond, cashed the ten of clubs to discard another diamond, and then led the last club from dummy.

At this point, East and South each held a diamond and a trump. If East ruffed, South could discard the losing diamond. If East discarded, South could ruff and thus make the first 12 tricks. Either way, South was sure to make his slam contract.

The Ways of Justice

Detroit (AP) — Associate Municipal Judge John T. McWilliams of suburban Dearborn entered the courtroom and pounded the gavel. The bailiff called out the first case: "The people against Associate Municipal Judge John T. McWilliams," and handed him three unpaid parking tickets. The judge found himself guilty on two of the counts and fined himself $10 with an alternative of four days in jail. He paid the fine. On the third ticket, he argued with himself, upheld his argument and dismissed the charge.

Losses Blamed

Boston Post Folds Again

Boston, Oct. 4 (AP)—The 125-year-old Boston Post ceased publication today "until further notice" because of continued operating losses.

At its end, the daily morning circulation was 255,000 and the Sunday circulation about 260,000.

Announcement of the suspension—the third time the paper discontinued operations in three months—was made by three trustees appointed by federal court under the bankruptcy act.

800 are Affected

Approximately 800 employes are affected. Notices announcing the suspension of publication were posted on bulletin boards throughout the building while most were at work last night.

The city room was at its peak of activity when night editor Edward Drohan pinned the message on the board.

A silence that is strange in city rooms prevailed as more than a score of reporters, editors, desk men and others crowded around to read the sad news.

Then they returned to their desks to complete the work on hand before shaking hands all around and wishing each luck in the search for new jobs.

Most Pessimistic

Most were pessimistic that the Post would publish again.

The trustees, however, were hopeful that a purchaser for the paper would be found.

Their announcement said in part:

"We have operated the paper for more than five weeks and in that time have made a thorough analysis of the difficult problems involved. During this period we have conferred at length with many prospective purchasers of the Post.

Change of Pace

Honolulu (AP)—Marine Corps Warrant Officer Robert I. Ward is a man who likes a change of pace. He says he is quite pleased about his new assignment, after 18 months in subtropical Hawaii. He leaves soon for Little America, as a member of Operation Deepfreeze.

PILOTS KEY SUEZ—Recent grounding of a British tanker in the Suez Canal, delaying ship convoys for several hours, points up the hazards of the trick waterway for inexperienced pilots. Newsmap, above, spots some of the "built-in" difficulties which Nasser's skeleton crew of Suez pilots must battle daily even when nothing goes wrong with a ship, as it did in this instance of a jammed steering gear.

Briefly Told

Lake Placid, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)—Conservation Commissioner Sharon J. Mauhs tonight will address the 23rd annual meeting of the New York State Conservation Council.

State Sen. Wheeler Milmoe of Canastota, chairman of the joint legislative committee on natural resources, will speak tomorrow.

The four-day conference ends Saturday.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)—The State Public Works Department has allocated an additional $246,241 for flood repairs.

The funds, from a 1½-million-dollar appropriation made after the 1955 floods, were made available yesterday to the counties of Greene, Orange, Schoharie, Sullivan, Ulster and Putnam.

* * *

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)—The State Board of Equalization and Assessment will conduct a hearing Oct. 23 (10 a. m.) on tentative equalization rates set for four cities.

The board yesterday set these rates:

(Tentative) Batavia, 41; Binghamton, 55; Rensslaer, 56; Sherrill, 28.

(Final) Auburn, 56; Canandaigua, 52; Lockport, 54; Long Beach, 44; Port Jervis, 48. These are the same as tentative rates announced previously.

The rates, based on local-state appraisals of real property, are used in computing debt and tax limits and some forms of state aid.

Toronto, Oct. 4 (AP)—A woman jurist from North Tonawanda, N. Y., said last night that no country in the world gives women equal rights with men.

Judge Catherine Lautz told the Toronto Council of Women that "even in the United States . . . women are discriminated against in a thousand ways."

Judge Lautz named ancient Egypt as the "only country where women had full equality." She said one important barrier to equal rights for women is their ignorance of their legal status.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 4 (AP)—Dr. Ivan R. Bierly, former professor of Economics at Cornell University, has been named president of the Princeton Panel, a new educational center at Princeton University.

The panel will be used for the study and teaching of the principles of the American capitalistic economy.

Adults to Register For Class Thursday

On Thursday, Oct. 4, registration will be held for the adult education classes of the Saugerties Central School. The registration will take place from 7 until 8:30 p. m. in the Main Street School, Saugerties.

The courses being offered are as follows: bands, care of infants, ceramics, driver education, effective speaking, English for foreign born adults, first aid, German, hobby and woodworking, interesting books, interior decorating and the making of slip covers and draperies, knitting, law everyone should know, local government, mental health and psychology of human relations, metal work, orchestra, photography, rug hooking, sewing, and typing.

All new courses will begin the week of Oct. 8 with the exception of drivers education in Saugerties and Mt. Marion, and the course in local government. The driver education classes will begin the third week in November; the three weeks' local govrnment course will begin Oct. 17.

Four Men Indicted

Magnolia, Miss., Oct. 4 (AP)—Four white men were indicted yesterday for abusing a 16-year-old Negro girl. Ernest Dillon, Olen Duncan and his cousin, Duroa Duncan, were indicted on charges of kidnap and rape. Ollie Dillon, indicted only on kidnap charges, said he was an unwilling passenger in the car. Authorities said Ernest Dillon attempted suicide in his jail cell last week and was treated for self-inflicted razor wounds.

Flood Repair Jobs For Shandaken, Gardiner Okayed

Two flood repair projects in the towns of Gardiner and Shandaken totaling $1,952.16 were among 10 more which became eligible for state aid under the $1,500,000 Emergency Flood Repair Bill, it was announced today by John W. Johnson, superintendent of the state department of public works.

The projects approved were: Town of Gardiner — additional funds, repair of various town roads. Amount approved, $292.16. Town of Shandaken—repairs to Panther Kill road. Amount approved, $1,656.

227 Approved

These and other projects located in Greene, Orange, Putnam, Sullivan and Schoharie counties will invole a total of $246,241.16 in state aid. To date including the above 10, a total of 227 projects have been approved in 14 counties.

The Emergency Flood Bill, signed earlier this year by Governor Harriman, was designed to give state assistance to communities for replacement in kind of public facilities which were damaged in the floods of August and October, 1955.

The projects listed in Putnam and Schoharie counties came under the jurisdiction of the Department of Water Supply, City of New York.

Excelsiors to Meet

A special meeting of Excelsior Hose Company No. 4 will be held Monday at 8 p. m. in the engine house on Hurley avenue. All members are urged to attend as matters of importance will be discussed.

Governor Names Two

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)—Gov. Harriman today announced two appointments to the Northwestern New York Water Authority and expressed himself as "greatly concerned" over water-supply problems in the area. In announcing the appointments of Howard Bowen of Holley and Stanley A. Brzezinski of the town of Wheatfield, the governor said in a statement: "I am greatly concerned with the present water problem in the western New York counties which comprise this authority's district, particularly the critical suburban areas of Niagara and Orleans counties."

Low Cost Distillation

At arid Baku, on the salty Caspian Sea, sea water can be distilled at low cost because of plentiful oil heat. The cost of sea distillation is prohibitive in most dry places.

Remains in Hospital

Libertyville, Ill., Oct. 4 (AP)—Little Karen Wahl, who escaped serious injury Tuesday when she was run over by a 14-ton truck, remained in a hospital today for observation. Physicians at Condell Memorial Hospital said they had not found anything seriously wrong with the 19-month-old girl except for a possible minor bone injury to her left leg. However, they said they wanted to keep Karen under observation in the hospital for a few days.

The bid price on Liberty stock dropped from $45 to $28 a share after the announcement. There are 275,000 shares outstanding.

Congress to Make Appointments for Marine Academy

Congressional nominations will be made for young men interested in the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, N. Y., beginning with the 1957 class, it was announced today by Congressman J. Ernest Wharton.

Preliminary information indicates the procedure in making appointments will be the same as that employed by the Air Force Academy, the congressman said. Approximately 25 vacancies will be allotted New York state and competition for the appointments will be statewide.

Civil Service Exam

All applicants will be scheduled for a preliminary Civil Service examination in November and those attaining a satisfactory rating will be eligible to take academy entrance examinations in March for the class entering in August 1957.

To be eligible for admission to the acadenmy, candidates must be 1) a citizen of the United States, 2) must have good moral character, 3) in good physical condition, 4) must have attained the age of 17 years and must not have reached the age of 22 years as of July 1 of the year admitted to the academy, 5) must never have been married, and 6) a bona-fide resident of the 29th Congressional District.

Application must be made to Congressman J. E. Wharton, Room 1009, House Office Building, Washington 25, D. C., prior to October 22, 1956.

New Repair Method

McAlester, Okla. (AP)—Dr. O. W. Rice found a new way to repair his watch. His 2-year-old watch stopped running and a jeweler told him it would cost about as much to repair it as to buy a new one. Dr. Rice decided against the operation but several days later he accidentally dropped the watch on the concrete pavement. When he picked it up, it was running and has been keeping good time ever since.

Held in Boy's Death

Colton, Calif., Oct. 4 (AP)—An 11-year-old boy is being held by juvenile authorities today in connection with the drowning death of his school chum, George Bryant, 8, a polio victim. The body of young Bryant, a national "polio poster boy" in 1949, was found yesterday face down in 10 inches of water along the Santa Ana river wash.

475 Workers Idle

Amsterdam, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)—About 475 workers were idle today in a labor dispute at Mohawk Carpet Mills Inc. A company spokesman said 225 had not reported for work in a limited strike that began Tuesday, while 250 were laid off yesterday when their work was affected by the walk-out in the carding department. The mill employes 3,500. Both company and the Textile Workers Union of America said the strike was unauthorized.

Patrolman Is Slain

Scarsdale, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)—A patrolman was shot and killed today while checking on a stolen car. Police said the gunman was being hunted in a wooded area in nearby New Rochelle after he smashed up the auto in which he fled. The victim was identified as Patrolman Charles Ackerly. Police said Ackerly was shot in the back. Further details were not immediately available.

Honored by Engineers

Chicago, Oct. 4 (AP) — Dr. Charles F. Kettering, former General Motors Company executive, today received the first annual Charles F. Kettering medal from six engineering societies. The award, named in his honor, was presented jointly by the American Society of Civil Engineers, American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, American Institute of Chemical Engineers, Society of Automotive Engineers, and American Instiute of Electrical Engineers. Dr. Kettering is the inventor of the automobile self-starter.

Rebels Slay 23 Young Draftees

Algiers, Oct. 4 (AP)—Algerian rebels killed 23 French soldiers—all of them 21-year-old draftees—in a fierce battle that raged for several hours last night south of Oran.

The French announcement of the action made no mention of rebel losses.

The soldiers were part of reinforcements hurriedly dispatched to the area of Aflou where yesterday morning nine other French soldiers were killed in a rebel ambush.

The young troops had been called into uniform only a few months ago.

It was one of the heaviest losses suffered by French forces in a single clash since the rebellion started almost two years ago.

Both Parties Had a Hand

Politicos Shift Blame About Killing U.S. Aid to Schools

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

Washington, Oct. 3 (AP)—Confused parents wonder: Who killed federal aid to education which would have meant more classrooms? Democrats or Republicans? The answer: Both parties had a hand in it.

Both parties have blamed each other. President Eisenhower this week sought to give the impression the Democrats did it. His explanation was too simple. Here is an attempt to explain it:

Early in 1955 Eisenhower proposed a federal aid to education program. A bill to carry out his ideas was offered in the House. A lot of other bills were introducted, too, including bills by Democrats who had a majority in the House.

The House Education and Labor Committee held hearings 27 days and agreed on a compromise bill sponsored by Rep. Kelley (D-Pa.. Roughly the Eisenhower program called for aid to states based on need. The Kelley bill would have divided it according to the school-age population in each state.

The committee vote for the Kelley bill was 21-9. It went this way: 15 Democrats and 6 Republicans for the bill; 7 Republicans and 2 Democrats against it.

One of the Republicans voting for it was Rep. McConnell of Pennsylvania, who played a big part in what followed later. He is the senior GOP member of the committee.

The committee okayed the bill in July 1955. The House didn't bring it up for a vote that year. In 1956 Eisenhower again proposed federal aid. The House brought up the Kelley bill last June 28.

What followed got complicated and confusing.

Rep. Powell (D.-N.Y.), a Negro, proposed a red hot amendment saying no federal money could go to states which persisted in public school segregation.

Debate in the House is limited, but it was clear that if the Kelley bill with the Powell amendment attached came up in the Senate, where debate is unlimited, southerners would filibuster the whole bill to death.

So a House vote for the Powell amendment was pretty certain to doom the bill. Eisenhower opposed the Powell amendment. But the amendment passed on an unrecorded teller vote. Reporters in the House said a majority of Republicans voted for Powell's amendment.

Then Rep. Gwinn (R.-N.Y.) proposed an amendment to scrap the Kelley bill's idea of aid to the states according to school-age population and have the federal government give back to the states one per cent of the total income tax, individual and corporate, collected in each state. The refund would be used for education.

This, too, was approved on an unrecorded vote. Sometime later, perhaps an hour, it was discovered that adoption of the Gwinn amendment eliminated the Powell amendment which the House had just approved.

So there was another vote, knocking out the Gwinn amendment. Since Powell's amendment had been eliminated in this process, Powell offered it again.

This time it was approved on a rollcall vote, 225-192. It broke down: 148 Republicans and 77 Democrats for the Powell amendment: 146 Democrats and 46 Republicans against.

Here Rep. McConnell came back into the picture. Although he had voted in committee for the Kelley bill—he moved now to shelve it and substitute for it a bill carrying out Eisenhower's ideas.

This was defeated, 261-158. It broke down: 215 Democrats and 46 Republicans voted against it; 149 Republicans and 9 Democrats voted for it. This was the only vote Eisenhower mentioned this week in blasting the Democrats.

Then came the final vote on whether to pass the Kelley bill at all. The bill was killed, 224-194. It broke down: 119 Republicans and 105 Democrats voted to kill the bill; 119 Democrats and 75 Republicans voted to pass it.

On that final action McConnell reported himself as present but didn't vote.

Last summer Adlai Stevenson blamed the Republicans for what happened to federal school aid. Now he is more careful. Speaking about it on Sept. 28 he said "a large majority of Republicans voted against" the Kelley bill.

But he added: "It must be said in fairness . . . that the situation on that vote was complicated by other factors which crossed party lines." However, he said, "strong leadership" from Eisenhower would have switched a lot of Republican votes in favor of the bill.

This week Eisenhower, who seems to get nettled by Stevenson's accusations, didn't say flatly the Democrats killed aid to schools but, he did say:

"There was only one clear vote on my call for action. In the House, the opposition voted against it by 215 to 9, while three-fourths of the Republicans voted for it."

He was referring to McConnell's last-minute effort to substitute a Republican bill for the Kelley bill. But he said nothing of the fact that the Republicans outnumbered the Democrats in voting for the Powell amendment and then in killing the Kelley bill.

Knight Aide Quits, Under Fire on Loan

Sacramento, Calif., Oct. 4 (AP)—Charles G. Johnson, ill, aged and under fire by Gov. Knight, has quit as California's state treasurer, a position he has held continuously for 34 years.

The 75-year-old Republican official is being investigated by the legislative budget committee, which was given documents in July purporting to show Johnson had personally borrowed and hasn't paid back about $40,000 from banks in which he deposits state money.

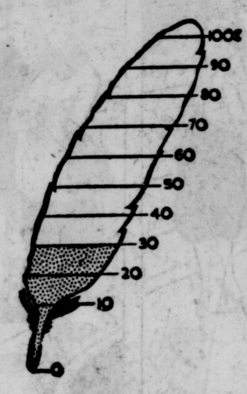

Johnson told the governor yesterday he was resigning the $14,000-a-year job effective Nov. 1, "on account of ill health." His doctor said he has heart trouble which could become serious.

Knight, a fellow Republican, said Johnson's resignation was "on a voluntary basis." After the budget committee was given information on Johnson's loans, Knight had said that the treasurer had shown "by his conduct" he wasn't qualified to hold office.

Actress Plans Divorce

Hollywood, Oct. 4 (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor, 24, says she plans a Nevada divorce from British actor Michael Wilding—but she declines to add whether marriage to producer Michael Todd, 48, will follow. Miss Taylor said yesterday that she will go to Lake Tahoe early in November to establish the required six-week Nevada residence. She and Wilding, 44, were married Feb. 21, 1952, and separated three months ago. They have two sons, Michael Howard, 3½ and Christopher Edward, 1½.

British Explode Atomic Weapon At Ground Level

Sydney, Australia, Oct. 4 (AP)—The British exploded an atomic weapon at ground level today at the Maralinga Proving Ground in South Australia. It was the second explosion in Britain's fourth series of test blasts.

"The firing went off satisfactorily," Australian Supply Minister Howard Beale announced. "The cloud behavior was as forcast and meets the requirements of the Australian Safety Committee."

Earlier reports said the ground-level explosion was intended to test the effect of shock waves on underground shelters and water, sewage and gas pipes.

The first explosion of the current series, from a tower on Sept. 27, wrecked everything within a two-mile radius and rattled windows 200 miles away.

Two More Planned

Two more firings are planned at Maralinga, another from a tower and an "operational weapon of a service type" to be dropped from a bomber.

Sir William Penney, the British scientist in charge of the test, has said the explosive power of the weapons is equivalent to a few thousand tons of TNT—in contrast to the million-ton-or-more strength of the blasts reported set off by the United States and Russia.

It is generally believed the weapons the British are testing are designed to become warheads for guided missiles.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

A couple of centuries ago the Indians knew that the Hudson Valley was fertile ground for their gardens and they raised a large variety of eatables that are today known to us. Even Henry Hudson in his journal wrote about the vegtables and when the colonists came here the Indians taught them many of the tricks they knew like using fish to fertilize the ground and how to keep corn and other food through the winter. Those were the days before California became colonized, long before the gold rush of 1849. We folks along the Hudson, Ulster county especially, were able to eat and survive without carrots in cellophane bags from California. When it comes to oranges, lemons, bananas and figs of warm climates that of course should be imported, but during the summer months, when our gardens are getting their own sunshine and we have to buy imported vegetables, with drops of moisture clinging to the cello bags, that I cannot see.

Whenever I mention this subject I seem to get an avalanche of response. One of my readers who raises her own vegetables and agrees with me, that the golden sunshine of the Hudson valley does something for them. She said the other day she bought two ears of corn in a cello bag and brought them home to cook and compare with home grown variety. She marked them so she would know what was which. She said the difference was so noticeable because of the sweetness and delicious taste of home grown. Of course no one has to be convinced about local grown and in season Ulster county tomatoes.

I remember in Port Ewen, our land was small but my grandfather raised corn, carrots, cucumbers, peas, beans; and potatoes on the slope. We survived very nicely through the winter with all our own vegetables and fruit. Meat we bought. I spoke to a meat packer whose family have been in business here locally for a long time, and asked about the difference in taste of ham.

They used to carefully smoke it themselves; today, she says, everything is mass production, quick-hurry-up and the smoke is "painted on," that no doubt gives it a flavor of some type of synthetic taste, that reminds me of bitter medicine. She told me that farmers used to bring the hams to their plant and they were cured carefully and smoked with old fashioned methods which of course produced that flavor we all love but have no time for in this modern world.

The youngsters of today may have million dollar school houses, but I am afraid their knowledge of old time eatables will be only in history books.

When Barney Mann had his grocery and vegetable store downtown, every day the farmers would bring in fresh fruits and vegetables of the season. We practically bought it off the truck. He had bushel baskets of carrots all winter long, the tops were off, and they were not as blowed up or smooth looking as the Pacific coast type. They were small and brighter looking but when you cut into them, they had the distinct aroma of a carrot. That is all I ask of food is that it should taste and smell like it is supposed to be, no surprises. Also, I wonder how many folks remember 'soup-'n-greens' which Barney used to sell for a nickle or a dime. He would give you a little of this and that for soup, all garden fresh, that seems to be unheard of today.

Plattekill

Plattekill, Oct. 3 — Announcement has been received here of the engagement of Miss Denise Baxter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Baxter, of Montgomery, to Earl L. Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rice of Saranac. Miss Baxter, a graduate of the Walden High School and Benedictine Hospital School of Nursing in Kingston, is a granddaughter of the late Irving Baxter of Plattekill.

Young people from the Plattekill area receiving Juvenile Grange degree at the Plattekill Grange Hall recently were Cathy and Sharon Benedict, Diana and Elaine Cronk, Elizabeth and Clarence Dunn, Paul Evans, Chari-Jan and Jeffry Franklin, Christine Grismer, Robert Noble, Camille, Michael and Thomas Romano, Walter Woodruff, Donald and Mary Zolazak. Receiving the honorary juvenile Grange Degree were Fritz Eckam, Francis and Joseph Evans, Beatrice Everett, Isabella and George Daley, Grace Franklin, Ruth and Elmore Lozier, Mabel and John McDole, Margaret and Ralph Grismer, Beulah Merwin, Helena and George Mollenhauer, Claude Palen, Bessie Powell, Marian Woodruff and Muriel Ward.

Members of the Plattekill Fire Commissioners, Vernard B. Wager, Ony P. Owlowski, Arthur Dunn, Edward Neuwirth, Capt. Merton Jenkins and Ralph Garcia, issued a contract to a Newburgh concern for new fire equipment, to be delivered to the local fire station in the near future. The new up-to-date equipment will adequately meet the needs of the fast growing community of Plattekill, and the out-lying districts are often hampered by lack of water in fighting fires.

AMERICAN MENU

Tuna Pasta-Suta Suits Get-Out-the-Vote Workers

HER GUESTS vote for Frances Martha Misetich's tuna pasta-suta, at least at her meetings in San Pedro, Calif.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Let's all register and vote this year!

In the tuna fishing settlement of San Pedro, Calif., civic-minded Frances Martha Misetich, like other Yugoslavs by birth, is aware of her privileges and responsibilities as an American citizen. The wife of the skipper of the Anthony M, largest purse-seiner in the San Pedro fleet, Mrs. Misetich is active in getting out the fishermen's vote this year.

In the tuna fishery, cruises last as long as two or three months. Therefore, it's imperative that the skippers and crews be provided with absentee ballots to vote before sailing. Together with a committee of other civic-minded women, Mrs. Misetich sees they get them.

A favorite dish for these "get-out-the-vote" committee meetings is her typical Yugoslavian recipe for Tuna Pasta-Suta.

Tuna Pasta-Suta
(Makes 4 servings)

One 7-ounce solid-pack tuna, 2 tablespoons olive or salad oil, 1 medium-sized onion, chopped; 1 clove garlic, chopped; 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, 1 1-pound can tomatoes, 1 8-ounce can tomato sauce, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaespoon pepper, ¼ teaspoon allspice, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon, dash Tabasco, 1 tablespoon salt, 3 quarts boiling water, 8 ounces spaghetti, ¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese.

Drain tuna: reserve oil. Combine tuna oil, olive or salad oil, onion, garlic and parsley. Cook 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Break tuna into pieces. Add tuna, tomatoes, tomato sauce, ¼ salt, pepper, allspice, cinnamon and Tabasco to parsley mixture. Cook over low heat 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Meanwhile, add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add spaghetti so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Serve tuna sauce over spaghetti. Sprinkle with cheese.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Tuna Pasta-Suta, French or Italian bread, fresh vegetable salad, French dressing, glaced red cherry pie, coffee, tea, milk.

A brand new look in beauty soap!

You'll love the way it makes you feel... fresh, fragrant, really clean!

So clear you can see it's as pure as can be!

Hold a bar of GAYLA to the light! Here's the soap with nothing to hide! You can actually see its purity. In fact, GAYLA is the purest bar of soap money can buy!

So satin-soft to the touch you know it must be milder!

You've never felt soap so luxurious as this before! Even in cold, hard water, GAYLA feels so nice in your hands . . . so smooth you know it must be kinder to your skin!

Gives you more lather faster... a luxurious lanolized lather!

You get more lather quicker with GAYLA . . . a creamy, rich, lanolized lather that instantly clears clogged pores. And GAYLA lasts longer . . . washes down to the last sliver without cracking or breaking!

WONDER BAR! That's GAYLA. There's never been anything like this clear, green bar. It's made by an exclusive process no other toilet soap can use!

What's more, GAYLA actually beauty-treats your skin every time you bathe. Its luxurious lanolized lather goes to work instantly . . . reminds you of an expensive cream as it clears clogged pores of dirt and make-up.

Yes, skin care becomes wonderfully simple, every bath simply wonderful, with GAYLA. Yet, as you soon discover, GAYLA is one luxury you can easily afford. And it's unconditionally guaranteed by Lever Brothers. You like it—it likes you...or we'll disappointedly refund every penny you paid!

If Democrats Win

Reuther Not Interested In U. S. Job

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)—Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers Union, says he would not be interested in serving as Secretary of Labor if the Democrats win the election in November.

Reuther also told a newsman yesterday that he would not be interested in "any other government job."

Gives His Aim

"All I want is good government, a lasting peace and a strong labor movement," Reuther said. "I'm not interested in titles."

Reuther was here to address about 500 delegates at the annual convention of the International Chemical Workers Union. The convention ends tomorrow.

Reuther, who is also vice president of the AFL-CIO, said he never expects to seek political office.

"I think I can do more good for the common man and wield more influence for Adlai Stevenson where I am now," he declared.

Futile Search Is Made of Vessel For Red, Child

New York, Oct. 4 (AP)—U. S. immigration men swarmed over the huge liner Queen Mary yesterday in a futile search for a Russian refugee and his American-born baby daughter bound for the Soviet Union.

Among the 1,269 passengers were a score of Russians, one a ranking official. The father and child were said to be possibly the victims of Soviet intimidation.

The searchers were looking for 58-year-old Alexis Chwastov and his daughter, Tanya, 2½. The child was born in Philadelphia.

Tipped Off by Wife

Apparently tipped off by Chwastov's estranged wife, immigration officials made a deck by deck, cabin by cabin search. In Chwastov's tourist class cabin, they said, they found only luggage and bottles of baby formula.

One passenger, Fedor Solomatin, chief c... to the Soviet embassy i... ington, said: "In accord... our law, the child is a ... izen."

Solom... admitted the Chwastovs ... aboard but said he didn't kno... where.

Injuries Are Fatal

Wabash, Ind., Oct. 4 (AP)—Edward Walch, 12, of Brentwood, N. Y., died today 12 hours after being injured in a two-car collision near here. His mother, Mrs. Dorothy Walch, 32, received minor injuries as did an Indiana couple in the second car.

Peace Justices Will Hear About Road Laws

The first of a series of ten training sessions for justices of the peace will be held this evening at the Chambers School, town of Ulster, at 7:30 o'clock. Announced as the topic for discussion is the Vehicle and Traffic Law, which will be presented by Justice of the Peace Harold E. Macholdt.

Sponsored by the Ulster County Justices Association, the sessions will cover various phases of magistrate court procedure and operation. Sessions will be held each Thursday, except Thanksgiving, and will conclude with the December 6 session. Certificates will be presented to all justices who attend at least eight of the sessions.

At an orientation meeting held recently there were 25 enrollees present. Speaker at the meeting next week will be District Attorney Howard C. St. John.

GOP Inherited Democrat Mess, Benson Charges

Chicago, Oct. 4 (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson said today the Eisenhower administration "inherited a mess in agriculture" in 1953 and rebuilt the nation's agricultural economy "upon a solid foundation."

Benson in separate prepared speeches before the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce and the American Butter Institute said this is the farm situation now:

Situation Now

1. Farm net income currently is 19 per cent higher than a year ago.
2. Farm prices are 6 per cent higher than last December.
3. The total value of all farm assets at 173 billion dollars is an all-time record high.
4. Farm foreclosures are near the all-time record low.
5. Three-fourths of the nation's farmers own their farms.
6. Total net income per person on farms last year was 15 per cent higher than in 1949.
7. Dairy farmers' cash receipts this year will be nearly 10 per cent above 1955.
8. Farm exports last year were the highest in 30 years.

Say Driver Fell Asleep

Andrew I. Reily, 32, of 27 Murray street, Kingston, fell asleep while operating a car on Route 9W at Ulster Park at 1:15 a. m. today, state police at Highland report. The car traveling north crossed the road, struck a sign and telephone pole. There was no personal injury but the car was damaged. No arrest was made.

Drop Is Noted

655 Polio Cases Are Reported

Washington, Oct. 4 (AP)—There were 655 new polio cases reported by 47 states last week. No report was received from Rhode Island.

The total is 110 less than all the states reported in the week ended Sept. 22, and a public health service spokesman said today "we can expect a continuous decline now."

The spokesman also said present indications are that the 1956 total of cases will be approximately half the 1955 number.

12,153 This Year

Up through Sept. 29 there had been 12,153 cases this year, compared with 23,010 a year ago.

For this disease year, which started April 1, there had been 11,086 as compared with 21,947 for the 1955 span.

California had the most cases last week, with 74. New York had 61 and Illinois 58.

The spokesman said Rhode Island may have failed to report because there were no new cases in that state. Seven states and the District of Columbia reported they had no new cases.

The totals for the states did not include one paralytic case reported from Hawaii and one case reported from Alaska.

Onteora School Issue Meeting Set for Monday

The third in a series of public meetings in Onteora Central School District prior to the voting on the $1,125,000 expansion program bond issue will be held Monday at Shandaken Town Hall for Allaben, Shandaken, Bushnellville, Broadstreet Hollow and Fox Hollow. Voting on the proposal will be on or about November 15.

The bond issue covers a proposal to construct three elementary regional schools for the system at Lake Hill, Allaben and Brown's Station.

A similar meeting is scheduled Tuesday at Mt. Tremper Community Hall for residents of Mt. Tremper and Mt. Pleasant. All meetings begin at 8 p. m.

Two Utica Men Hurt In Tarrytown Mishap

Tarrytown, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)—Two men from Utica were injured, one of them critically, in a car accident near here last night.

State police identified them as Peter G. Murray, 25, of (no number available) Walker street, Utica, assistant plant superintendent of the Utica Radiator Corp., and David Kelly, 26, of 1608 Rutgers street.

Kelly, reported critically injured, was a passenger in a car driven by Murray, police said. They were taken to Dobbs Ferry Hospital, which said Kelly received two leg fractures, and head, face, chest and back injuries, and that Murray suffered head injuries. Murray's condition was listed as serious.

Police said Murray's car smashed into a guard rail of an access ramp to the state thruway from the Sawmill River Parkway, causing the right car door to come open and flinging Kelly out and downward to a shoulder of the parkway 36 feet below.

In Tullahoma, Tenn., the U. S. Air Force is building a wind tunnel which will provide hurricane gales of 3,800 miles per hour.

MODENA NEWS

Modena, Oct. 3 — The third birthday of Ronald W. West, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold West was celebrated Saturday, Sept. 29, with a party. Suspended colored balloons and gaily decorated birthday cake, added to the festiveness of the occasion and those present were Cindy Lee and Nancy Klyve and mother, Mrs. James Klyve; Andrea Coy and mother, Mrs. Leonard Coy; Douglas and Alan Tice and mother, Mrs. Ralph Tice; Carline and Laurie Coy and mother, Mrs. Russell Coy; William P. Burke and mother, Mrs. Edward Burke, of Poughkeepsie; Suzanne West and mother, Mrs. Walter West, Highland; Mrs. Ida West and Mrs. Hannah Holmberg, Roger and Ronald West and mother, Mrs. Harold West of Modena.

Mrs. Lester A. Wager Jr., and daughter Judy Lynn, attended a birthday party celebrating the birthday of Michael Andersen at New Paltz Sunday.

The October meeting of the WSCS will meet Thursday at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Joseph Simmons at Ireland Corners. Transportation will be furnished.

The regular meeting of the Modena Fire Dept. will be held Thursday, Oct. 4 at 8 p. m. at the firehouse. A report will be given of the meeting of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association at Highland attended by local members.

Plans are complete for the annual fair and supper, sponsored by Plattekill Grange members, local members actively participating. Mrs. Lillian Courter, chairman of the service and hospitality committee in charge of the cafeteria supper, announces that an attractive menu has been planned. Awards will be made to those exhibiting articles of fruit, flowers, etc. according to the class judged. A sale of fruit and vegetables will be made at the conclusion of the program arranged for the evening. Articles of attractive nature will appear on the utility stand, suggestive of holiday or special day gifts.

Mrs. Robert Rognon represented the Modena unit of the Ulster County Home Demonstration Dept., at a leader's meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. Jack Weissman at Accord. "Citizenship" was the subject aptly discussed and stressing the importance of being a well-informed voter at all times, and especially this presidential election year.

The Rev. John E. Swords was elected lecturer of the Clintondale Grange, at the annual election of officers held recently at the Grange Hall.

Members of the seventh grade of the Wallkill Central School, including a number of local students, enjoyed a visit to the historical Shawangunk Reformed Church during the past week A complete tour of the church was made creating great interest in the young visitors.

Miss Kathryn Mower RN of Wallkill a member of the Vassar Hospital staff visited Mrs. Lester A. Wager Jr. and daughter Judy Lynn Thursday.

Kenneth Brown plant manager of the Ions Exchange Chemical Co. of New York city, and his family, were visitors here last week. Michael Yardney, president of the concern, and Dr. Meyer Meldelshon, vice-president, are also residents of New York city. Employment is increasing at the plant at this time.

Nancy Black, Marie Nuzzo and Lorraine Spista are members of the senior class of Wallkill Central School, portraying the cast of characters in the annual class play entitled "They Shook the Family Tree" and which will be presented Friday and Saturday, Nov. 2-3 at the school.

Ransel J. Wager attended the baseball game at the Yankee Stadium Saturday, accompanied by a friend from Middletown.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bernard were recent visitors in Rhinebeck.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cooke and daughter Edith of Flushing, L. I. were recent visitors of relatives here.

Members of the Modena Rod and Gun Club met on their newly purchased property north of Modena Sunday for the purpose of clearing the land for their proposed club house, shooting range, etc. A report of their accomplishments and further plans will be made at a meeting of the club, scheduled for Friday, Oct. 12, at the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall, at 8 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson G. Hedges, were presented with the Golden Sheaf, in recognition of the 50-year membership in the Plattekill Grange, recently. Mr. and Mrs. Hedges, who recently sold their farm property southwest of Modena, have purchased a home in the village, where they plan to move next spring.

Party Contradictions

Washington, Oct. 4 (AP) — Directly contradictory claims to control of the next Senate were staked out today by Sens. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) and Andrew F. Schoeppel (R-Kan.). Johnson, the Democratic Senate leader, contended his party "will hold all our present seats" and capture several now occupied by Republicans. Schoeppel, chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, countered that "we're going to hold all the Republican seats and expect to pick up some from the Democrats." The Democratic margin now is 49-47. Thirty-five of the 96 Senate seats are at stake in November, 18 of them held by Democrats and 17 by Republicans. Five southern Democrats are unopposed.

Won't Reveal New Anti-Sub Weapon

Los Angeles, Oct. 4 (AP)—Navy Secretary Thomas says the United States has a new secret weapon against submarines, but he won't say what it is.

He told a news conference yesterday that the new weapon, highly classified, would be of tremendous significance in the event of trouble with Russia, whose navy is composed primarily of submersibles.

Maintaining the United States Navy is the most powerful in the world, Thomas declared the Forrestal type of carrier can go nearly 40 miles an hour, and added: "It is almost impossible for a sub to hit a ship traveling 20 miles an hour. At 40 it is just about a million-to-one against its getting in a torpedo."

Vehicle Bureau Lists Suspension And Revocations

A list of driver license and motor vehicle registration revocations and suspensions for major causes during the first half of September were announced today by Motor Vehicle Commissioner Joseph P. Kelly.

Licenses revoked for conviction of driving while intoxicated, Kenneth Stokes, 47, of 77 Montgomery street, Saugerties, and Edgar David Wilklow, 22, of Lackawack road, Napanoch.

Licenses revoked for conviction of leaving the scene of an accident, John G. Brandow, 28, of 12 Newkirk avenue.

Junior operator license revoked Donald R. Weaver, 17, of Box 87, Route 2, Wallkill, for speeding and violation of section 20-A, minor driving without insurance.

License suspended for persistent violations under the point system, Arnold G. Avery, 21, of 81 Clinton avenue, for 30 days.

May Go Out of Court

Philadelphia, Oct. 4 (AP)—There was renewed speculation today that anti-trust suits between eastern trucking concerns and some of the nation's biggest railroads would be settled out of court. U. S. District Court Judge Thomas Clary yesterday recessed the trial — involving a total of 370 million dollars in damages—until next Tuesday. He said both sides would begin conferences "which may materially shorten the duration of the case." And a reliable source reported Clary had been informed that a settlement might be reached by Tuesday.

Red Ballet Given High British Praise

London, Oct. 4 (AP)—The first appearance in the west of Moscow's 180-year-old Bolshoi ballet brought high acclaim from British critics today for the company and for Galina Ulanova, at 47 still one of the world's greatest ballerinas.

The Bolshoi company opened a month's season in the British capital last night with a performance of "Romeo and Juliet" before a Covent Garden audience glittering with luminaries of stage, screen, society and politics.

Prime Minister Eden and his wife were among those who went backstage to congratulate the dancers.

As curtain time neared, scalpers outside the theater did a brisk business in 2 guinea ($5.88) seats for five times their face value. But hundreds were turned away.

Dirksen Scores Stevenson Record On Education Aid

Washington, Oct. 4 (AP)—Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.) today described as "an interesting study in hypocrisy" Adlai E. Stevenson's call for increased federal aid to education and what Dirksen said was Stevenson's record on state aid as governor of Illinois.

"A man is judged by his acts —not by clever words and smooth phrases that might come from his mouth at convenient times," Dirksen said in a statement issued through the Republican national committee.

Adlai Forced Cut

"As governor of Illinois," Dirksen said, "the same Adlai Stevenson who is now calling for billions in school aid, forced the Illinois legislature to cut 10 million dollars from the Illinois common school fund in 1949, and in 1951 vetoed aid for handicapped children. He also vetoed over half a million dollars for school lunches."

Stevenson, the Democratic nominee for president, called Monday for a five-point federal aid program to help provide 50,000 more teachers and build 100,000 new classrooms each year. He said it would cost the nation from 500 million to a billion dollars more each year just to meet the building and teacher needs of a growing school age population.

13 Workmen Hurt

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 4 (AP)—A portion of a downtown open-air package garage, inspected and declared safe only hours earlier, collapsed under 90 tons of wet concrete yesterday and injured 13 workmen as they dropped 20 feet to the ground. Early reports said none of the men was injured seriously. Workmen were still pouring concrete into V-shaped steel forms to support the 40 by 40 foot section when the forms gave way. Most of the injured were smoothing the newly-poured concrete.

Argue Over Discharge

Washington, Oct. 4 (AP)—Army lawyers argued today that Sgt. James C. Gallagher received only a "paper discharge" in 1953 and that a court-martial acted legally in convicting him two years later of killing two fellow prisoners of war in North Korea. They asked the court of military appeals to declare Gallagher could still be tried despite a one-day break in service. Gallagher received the discharge Oct. 27, 1953, when his enlistment expired. He re-enlisted the following day. A board of review threw out the conviction last spring, but the army's judge advocate general asked the appeals court, high tribunal for servicemen, to decide the question of jurisdiction. The board held that the court-martial at Ft. Jay, N. Y., lacked authority to consider charges based on events occurring in a previous enlistment.

Brink Case May Go to Jury by Friday Evening

Boston, Oct. 4 (AP)—The defense in the $1,219,000 Brink's robbery trial says it will submit a number of motions today in behalf of the eight defendants before the case is given to the jury for a verdict.

Both the prosecution and the defense have completed the presentation of evidence.

After arguments on the defense motions, will come the closing arguments by both sides and the judge's charge to the jury.

The case probably will be given to the jury for determination of the guilt or innocence of the defendants either tomorrow night or Saturday morning.

Trial in 9th Week

The defense rested yesterday in the ninth week of the Superior Court trial without any of the defendants taking the witness stand.

The last defense witness was Lt. James V. Crowley, a Boston policeman for 35 years.

He told the jury and Judge Felix Forte that on the night Brink's headquarters was robbed —at about 7:10 p. m., Jan 17, 1950—he talked with Joseph F. McGinnis, 53, one of the defendants, for a while beginning about 7:30 p. m.

PLAN 20TH AHAVATH ISRAEL BALL—Chairmen and committee workers planning the 20th annual ball and stage show for Congregation Ahavath Israel on Thanksgiving Eve, November 21, include seated (l-r) Attorney Seymour Werbalowsky, co-chairman of the ball; Mrs. Joseph Horowitz, co-chairman of journal; Benjamin Schecter, general chairman; Herman G. Rafalowsky, honorary chairman and Larry Jacobs, president of the congregation; second row (l-r) Carl Lipton, program committee; Nathan Badian, cloak room; Sidney Rafalowsky, patron tickets; Irving Reuben, secretary of congregation and Mrs. Alfred Horowitz, journal chairman; third row (l-r) Sanford Gossett, vice-president of congregation; Ephriam Propp, ball treasurer and Moe Schwartz, single tickets. Mrs. Herman G. Rafalowsky, publicity chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Murray Greene, chairmen of the reserve seat sale; Mrs. Alex Woolf and Mrs. Ephriam Propp, children's pages, were not present for the picture. (Freeman photo)

Benjamin Schecter Heads Ahavath Israel Committee for Annual Thanksgiving Ball

Continuing the long-standing policy of securing only the number one entertainers for its annual Thanksgiving Eve ball and stage shows, Congregation Ahavath Israel already has started mapping plans to make this year's 20th annual event one of the best on record.

These were the sentiments of Benjamin Schecter, chairman of the November 21 holiday eve attraction, who is taking over for Herman G. Rafalowsky, local clothier. Due to the press of business, Mr. Rafalowsky this year is serving as honorary chairman but his influence with the ball workings is expected to reflect on the program.

Mr. Schecter, who has been co-chairman on several occasions with Mr. Rafalowsky, told The Freeman today "we are making plans to bring a terrific show to Kingston this year. We will have a top-flight orchestra, singers and an all-around No. 1 bill of entertainment for our patrons."

"Of course," he added, "Mr. Rafalowsky this year is serving as honorary chairman but I am sure," he continued, "his valuable experience will be given us during the pre-ball arrangements."

Congregation Ahavath Israel, which earlier this year celebrated its 50th anniversary, already has been renown for its star-studded holiday eve shows in the past.

Now, under the capable guidance of General Chairman Schecter, who will work closely with Attorney Seymour Werbalowsky, co-chairman and Mr. Rafalowsky, honorary chairman, can be expected to continue the policy of securing the top names in the entertainment business.

The ball chairman and his committee workers are expected to visit in New York soon to complete negotiations for the orchestra to appear at the ball. Other entertainers will be signed after that.

In past years the Ahavath Israel balls have presented such outstanding personalities of the entertainment world as Buddy Morrow, Dick Shawn and Alan Dale, who topped last year's shows; Al Bernie, Henny Youngman, Morey Amsterdam, Dorothy Collins, Raymond Scott's Hit Parade orchestra, Jack Teagarden, Jan Murray, now emcee of his own ABC-TV show; Joey Adams, Harry Hirschfield, Sammy Xavier Cugat, Vincent Lopez and a host of others.

"Our aim, as always," Mr. Schecter said this morning "is to bring more of these outstanding stars to Kingston for this year's Thanksgiving Eve ball."

Reserve seat ticket arrangements will again be available this year. Mr. and Mrs. Murray Greene may be contacted for these seats.

John E. Glennon Receives Award At Medical School

JOHN E. GLENNON

The Roche Award, given to the sophomore at Albany Medical School who, in the opinion of the faculty committee, best exemplifies the ideals of modern American physicians, was presented to John E. Glennon, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Glennon of 62 Fair street.

Mr. Glennon received a wrist watch and a scroll containing a description of the award.

The citation recognizes outstanding scholarship, character, personality and seriousness of purpose as displayed by the student during the first two years of medical school.

Mr. Glennon is now a third year medical student at Albany Medical School.

WHEN TRAVELING ALONE

"On a long train trip, if a woman happens to get into a conversation with a man and later he asks her to join him in the dining car, may she accept? If you say 'yes' to this, should she ask to have her own check? I travel a good deal and so often it would be pleasant to go to dinner with a companion this way, if it were not for the fact that it is not always pleasing to feel under obligation to a stranger."

Say before you go into the dining car, "I would be very glad to sit with you at dinner, but of course, I'll pay my own check." If he persists then, you do not have to join him.

Lost Engagement Gift

Dear Mrs. Post: I was engaged about a year ago, and as I had a diamond ring I did not want another. Instead of an engagement ring my fiance gave me a lovely and very expensive pin. Unfortunately I lost the pin a short while ago. As I knew my fiance would be very upset over it I did not say anything to him at the time, although I had planned to tell him later. In the meantime, however, our engagement was broken and my fiance has asked me to return it to him, or give him the money for it. I really do not have the money to pay for it. Will you please tell me what to do in this situation.

Answer: You owe it to him and you should give him as much as you possibly can afford toward it.

Who Calls First?

Dear Mrs. Post: I have just returned from a year's trip through Europe. All of my friends think I should have called them up on my return. I think it was their place to call me to say hello and ask about my trip. Will you please let me know who is right?

Answer: You should have telephoned any of your friends who might not otherwise know of your return. Those who knew you were back should have called you.

* * *

How long before the wedding should the engagement announcement be made public? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail, but many details regardnig engagements are included in leaflet E-1, "Engagements." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Simmons-Ebel Nuptials Are Announced

Miss Shirley Louise Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Simmons of 152 Glen street, became the bride of Edward Benjamin Ebel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Ebel of Glasco Sunday, Sept. 30, at 3 p. m. in Trinity Lutheran Church. The Rev. Frank L. Gollnick, DD, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an imported Chantilly lace gown fashioned with long pointed sleeves, satin skirt with net top and a fingertip veil that was gathered to a lace cap trimmed with pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of white mums with satin streamers.

Miss Marion Simmons, sister of the bride, was her honor attendant. She wore a blue gown styled with ruffled net over taffeta. She carried a cascade bouquet of mums. Her head piece was a pillbox trimmed with blue daisies.

Roland Ebel of Port Ewen was the best man for his brother. Donald Simmons, another brother of the bride and Joseph Markle served as ushers.

A reception was held at McConnell's on Washington avenue for approximately 150 guests.

Mrs. Ebel, who attended Kingston High School, was employed by F. Jacobson and Sons. Her husband attended Saugerties High School and is in business with his father.

For her wedding south, the bride wore a pink lace dress with navy accessories and a corsage of white mums.

Maccaline-Houghtaling Wedding Told

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT HOUGHTALING

Miss Theresa Louise Maccaline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Maccaline of 66 Crane street, became the bride of Robert Edward Houghtaling, son of Mrs. Edward Houghtaling of 219 Downs street and the late Mr. Houghtaling, Sunday, Sept. 30 at 1:30 p. m. in St. Mary's Church.

The Rev. Edward I. Farrelly officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Vases of white mums decorated the church and the pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an embroidered nylon tulle gown over bridal satin, styled with long sleeves, a neckline outlined with sequins and a bouffant skirt that terminated in a cathedral train. A double princess crown secured the fingertip veil and the bride carried her mother's lace covered prayer book and a white orchid.

Mis Janice Marie Long of 185 O'Neil street was the maid of honor. She wore an aqua nylon net gown over taffeta styled with a cummerbund and a picture hat of tucked nylon net with an open crown. She carried a crescent shaped cascade bouquet of yellow mums.

Serving at the altar were cousins of the bride, Richard Turck and Joseph Bonavita.

Frederick Carr of Elizabeth street was the best man. Salvatore Maccaline, James Maccaline, brothers of the bride and Lewis Perry, cousin of the bride, were the ushers. Abram Van Aken, cousin of the bridegroom, also served as usher.

A reception was held at the Flamingo following the church ceremony for approximately 100 guests.

Mrs. Houghtaling is a graduate of Kingston High School and is employed by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

Her husband graduated from Kingston High School and is employed by the Canfield Supply Company. He is also a member of the New York State National Guard.

Helpful Answer

Dallas (AP)—The post office informed a woman that a small black and white dog was preventing mailman Houston L. Thomas from delivering her mail and that delivery would have to be held up until it was tied. The woman's answer didn't help much. "The black dog doesn't belong to us," she wrote. "We've tied up the white dog so please leave the mail now."

MATCHLESS — Scarcely higher than a small box match when stood on end, the wristwatch at right is said to be the thinnest timepiece of its kind ever made. It's .117 inches thick and its mechanism is only .063 inches in depth. The thin sliver of precision timekeeping machinery was recently on display at a watch fair in London, England.

Would Stop Funds

Washington, Oct. 4 (AP)—Rep. William Dawson (D-Ill.) moved today to stop payment of funds to the subcommittee investigating local schools until Congress has a chance to "act" on them. Dawson disclosed he has asked two House administrative officers to hold up funds for the investigating group which ended Monday two weeks of hearings on the problems of Washington's newly integrated public schools.

Dewey Labels Attacks on Ike As 'Disgraceful'

New York, Ost. 4 (AP)—Former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey says Adlai E. Stevenson has tried to "destroy the character of the President of the United States" and the character of his brother, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, by a "witch's brew."

Dewey also accuses the Democratic presidential nominee of issuing a "miserable collection of untruths" in charging that the Eisenhower administration appeased the Peron regime in Argentina.

The former governor told his listeners of a nationwide (ABC) television and radio broadcast last night that he hoped they were "as outraged as I am by the disgraceful attacks that have been made on the President" by Stevenson.

Defends President

Dewey defended President Eisenhower against a number of accusations made recently by Stevenson.

Dewey, whose 15-minute talk was sponsored by the Republican National Congressional Committee, called Stevenson "Ill-informed, impulsive" and "mediocre" and "not even in the same leagues with President Eisenhower."

Stevenson, said Dewey, would "rather be president than right" and is so "frantic for office that he will say anything to get there."

Dewey, the unsuccessful Republican preidential nominee in 1944 and 1948, called Eisenhower "the strongest, finest leader we have ever had."

Denies Shooting Incident

A report of an alleged shooting at a telephone operator in Saugerties yesterday, was denied by Chief Arthur W. Richter of the Saugerties police today. He reported there was no truth to the report which had gained wide circulation in the area.

LEISURE CLOTHES take on additional importance in modern family living. Relaxing by the fire, Dad wears a full-sleeved red and gray checked sportshirt in soft, lightweight wool jersey and gray worsted slacks. The oldest boy wears a striped gray, red and black worsted jersey sportshirt and durable gray wool flannel slacks, and his young brother, a sleeveless blue wool sweater and grey flannel shorts. Mom wears a white wool sweater set and black and gray checked flannel skirt. Daughter's quarter-sleeved sweater is worn with a lightweight gray worsted skirt.

Thinks Chances Good

Jackson, Ohio, Oct. 4 (AP)—David L. Trago, nominated as Democratic candidate for Jackson county sheriff while serving a jail sentence on a morals charge, says he thinks his chances are "real good" to win Nov. 6. "I'm doing all I know to do," the 52-year-old former sheriff said of his campaign, "I'm seeing the people, and everywhere I've been they've welcomed me. I think my chances are real good." He completed his one-year jail sentence Aug. 31. His wife paid his $2,800 fine with donations from "about 25 friends."

Wilson Says He Voted Down Mixing Politics in School

Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, of Woodstock, told members of the Town of Hurley Young Republican Club on Wednesday evening that he voted for an increase in school-aid appropriation but would not favor a Democratic bill "which would inject politics into education."

The assemblyman answered charges made recently by Mayor Eugene Glusker of Ellenville, Democratic candidate for member of assembly, at a meeting of the Town of Hurley Democratic Club.

Next Meeting Oct. 16

The next meeting of the club will be Tuesday, Oct. 16, at 8 p. m. in Hurley fire house.

"He will find to his 'amazement' that I voted for an increase in school aid appropriation," Mr. Wilson said, but would not vote "with a handful of Democrats in support of their bill which would mandate that the present non-partisan Board of Regents be made bi-partisan."

Mayor Glusker had scored Mr. Wilson's voting record in the state legislature in which he had voted against "17 issues that were of great benefit to a large segment of our citizens." The Ellenville Democrat said he was "amazed" at Mr. Wilson's voting record.

Schools Get More

Mr. Wilson said Ulster county school districts will receive $800,000 more in state aid this year than last 'only because the Republican legislature increased the appropriation for state aid to education by $63 million."

The assemblyman said Mayor Glusker's speech "is the usual demagogic type of appeal with which misinformed candidates seek to hoodwink voters." "In a sweeping generality Mayor Glusker says he was 'amazed' at my voting record because, according to his version, I voted against 'all' legislation which would benefit the working people of Ulster county," Mr. Wilson said.

Knows Workers' Point

"Having spent the major part of my life in Ulster county and a good portion of it as a public official on the town and county levels, I am entirely aware of the fact that 90 per cent of my constituents are working people. I am one of them myself," Mr. Wilson said.

"Our 'working' citizens knew that they as well as all other citizens, were benefited by the legislation increasing state unemployment insurance benefits; by the bills which provided appropriations for expanded cancer and heart research and the diseases of the aging; by the laws which provided for the vocational rehabilitation of the physically and mentally handicapped; by the reduction in the state income tax; by the acts which doubled state-aid for town highways; by the bills doubling the number of regular university scholarships for needy students and by those creating 500 new scholarships in engineering and 300 in nursing; by the laws allowing all persons 65 years and over an extra $400.00 income tax deduction and a deduction for full medical expenses up to $1,250.00.

Cites More Benefits

They also were benefited, Mr. Wilson said, "by the passage of the Republican-sponsored bills increasing the weekly disability benefits under the Sickness-Disability Law from $33 to $40 per weeks and extending the periods of payment of such benefits from 13 to 20 weeks; by the amendment of the Workmen's Compensation Law increasing the death benefits to widows and orphans by 75 per cent."

"All of the foregoing beneficial state-wide legislation was merely a part of the Republican party program and all of it was fully supported by me," he said.

"My sponsorship of local legislation to provide highway approaches to the new Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge; for the establishment of new arterial highway routes connecting with the Thruway; for the elimination of the viaduct at the westerly (Route 28) approach to Kingston; for bringing the Ulster County Clerk's filing fees up-to-date; as well as many other measures of purely local application are of benefit not only to the 'working' man, but to 'all' citizens.

Up to Legislature

"Apparently my opponent is entirely unfamiliar with the difference between the executive and legislative departments. On behalf of Governor Harriman he claims credit for the fact that this year Ulster county school districts will receive $800,000 more in state-aid than they did the previous year. Doesn't he know that this is true only because the Republican legislature increased the appropriation for state-aid to education by $63 million? Or does he think the Governor makes appropriations.

For his benefit let me say that the Governor can veto, but he cannot make an appropriation. Let me also suggest to my Ellenville Democratic opponent that he check my voting record in this increase in school-aid appropriation. He will find to his 'amazement' that I voted for it.

Works Other Way

"But the major complaint registered against me by the gentleman from Ellenville is my failure to vote with a handful of Democrats in support of their bill which would mandate that the present non-partisan Board of Regents be made bi-partisan. This bill would, according to my opponent, 'take education out of politics'. Actually, it would do just the reverse—it would inject politics into education.

"From time immemorial, both political parties have regarded the Board of Regents as an agency which should be above and beyond politics. Outstanding men and women of both parties have served with distinction on that Board. Its personnel has been consistently selected on the basis of their individual merit and achievement and wholly without regard to their political affiliations.

Apparently my opponent would change all this and make politics and political affiliation one of the primary qualifications for membership on that board. In my view, politics has no more place in the Board of Regents than it has in the Supreme Court of the United States.

"That President Eisenhower was free to appoint to that bench, solely on the basis of his judicial qualifications, the able Judge William J. Brennan, a New Jersey Democrat, even though at the time of his appointment a majority of the members of the Supreme Court were Democrats, is as it should be. Ability and fitness, not politics, should be, in my judgment, the sole tests for eligibility to such offices as the Board of Regents and the Supreme Court of the United States."

June Elsie France Is Wed at St. Joseph's

On Sunday, Sept. 30, at 3:30 p. m. in St. Joseph's Church, Miss June Elsie France, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen France of Haines Falls, became the bride of Gennaro Addesso, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Addesso of Port Ewen.

The Rev. Alfred Glancy officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Jean Benton sang "Ave Maria" and Mrs. Frank Rafferty was at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of rose point lace styled with a fitted bodice, long sleeves tapered to a point at the wrist, an illusion yoke with a tiny rolled collar embroidered with sequins. The bouffant skirt featured panels of scalloped lace and extended into a circular chapel length train. The French illusion fingertip veil cascaded from a bridal cap of matching lace embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent paillettes.

Serving as maid of honor was Miss Carol Tremper of 610 Delaware avenue. She was attired in a gown of lavender nylon net fashioned with a molded bodice of shirred slipper satin and a very full floor length skirt trimmed with shirred net. A jewelled crown to match secured a circular tulle veil. Miss Tremper carried a cascade bouquet of lilies.

Bridesmaids included Patricia Kelly of Palenville, Miss Anne Marie Addesso of 70 Roosevelt avenue, Lake Hiawatha, N. J., cousin of the bridegroom.

Their gowns were identical in style and color to that of the honor attendant and they carried the same type of bouquets.

Miss Arlene Burlison of Sidney, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She carried a basket of mixed flowers.

Best man for his brother was Daniel Addesso Jr., of Port Ewen. Edward France, brother of the bride and Carl Argentino of Brooklyn, were the ushers.

Mrs. Addesso is a graduate of Hunter-Tannersville Central High School and she attended the Moran-Spencerian School of Business.

She is now employed by IBM in Kingston in the purchasing department.

The bridegroom graduated from Midwood High School in Brooklyn and Fordham University. He holds a BS degree. Mr. Addesso is employed by IBM in Kingston in the accounting department.

Barbara Rathgeber Weds Donald Newell

MRS. DONALD GEORGE NEWELL

In a double ring ceremony on Saturday, Sept. 29 at 2:30 p. m. in the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, Miss Barbara Joan Rathgeber, daughter of Walter Rathgeber of 121 Franklin street and the late Mrs. Rathgeber, became the bride of Donald George Newell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Newell of 187 Elmendorf street.

The Rev. David C. Gaise officiated at the ceremony.

Mrs. Newell is a graduate of Kingston High School and is employed by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Kingston High School, served 16 months in Korea with the U. S. Army and is now employed by IBM.

Elaine Eisele Exchanges Vows Sept. 29 With Vernon Ekblom at Trinity Lutheran

MRS. VERNON T. EKBLOM

Miss Elaine Helen Eisele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Eisele of 96 Greenkill avenue, became the bride of Vernon Thomas Ekblom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ekblom of 35 Liberty street, Saturday, Sept. 29 at 2 p. m. in Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Dennis Harp of 229 Greenkill avenue was the best man and Harold Ekblom, brother of the bridegroom and George Vogt of 48 Pine street were the ushers.

A reception was held at the Ten Grand Restaurant.

Mrs. Ekblom attended Evander Childs High School in the Bronx and is employed by F. Jacobson and Sons.

Her husband attended Woodrow Wilson High School, L. I., and is employed by the Robert Kayton Association.

Quick Diagnosis

Hattiesburg, Miss. (AP)—When Dr. Ramsay O'Neal noticed a slight fluttering in his heart region while on a fishing trip, he wondered if it was the forerunner to a heart attack. Another flutter and he clapped his hand over his heart in real anxiety. That's when he found the small bream which he had caught earlier and absent-mindedly placed in his shirt pocket.

Births Recorded

Sept. 23—Barry Andrew to Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Frederic DeForest, 72 Maiden Lane, and Calvin George to Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Herbert Warnecke, 88 Newkirk avenue.

Sept. 24—Wendy Lynn to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Blanschan, 8 North Wilbur avenue, and Andrew Hunter, 2nd, to Mr. and Mrs. John Carver Burnett, 249 Washington avenue.

Sept. 25—Robert Joseph, Jr., to Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Peters, West Hurley, and Robert Owen to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McCabe, Old Witch Tree road, town of Woodstock.

Sept. 26—Ralph Cobden, 3rd to Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Earl, 11 Miller's Lane; Bradley Kristian to Mr. and Mrs. Marlin B. Klinger, Woodstock, and Cheryl Louise to Mr. and Mrs. William Albert Leverenz, 482 Hasbrouck avenue.

Sept. 27—Eileen Wrynn to Mr. and Mrs. John William Gleason, Box 165, Modena; Donald Jeffrey to Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Boyce, 215 Lucas avenue, and Michael Paul to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Koyon, Lake Katrine.

Sept. 28—Cynthia Marie to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lee Strong, Route 1, Box 320-A, Kingston.

Search for Cadet

West Point, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)—The entire 2,400-man cadet corps at the U. S. Military Academy today was ordered to conduct a search of a remote section of academy grounds where a missing cadet was last reported seen about 4 p. m. Monday. All efforts to trace the cadet, Stephen W. Bernotski Jr., 17, of Reno, Nev., so far have been unavailing. Classmates said they saw Bernotski, a candidate for the West Point track team, running along a trail in the remote area late Monday as if he were practicing. However, they said, he was carrying something.

Poznan Trial Ends

Poznan, Poland, Oct. 4 (AP)—The trial of three Polish youths accused of murder in the fatal beating of a secret policeman during the June 28 Poznan "bread and freedom" riots ended today, just a week after it began. The court announced it would deliver its verdict Monday. The prosecution has demanded that the youths be sentenced under an article of the penal code which provides penalties of from 10 years imprisonment to death for attack on a public official. The defense pleaded that penalties be fixed under article which provides only six months to five years in prison.

Price Correction

In the Governor Clinton Market advertisement in today's edition Betty Crocker Brownie Mix should read 2 packages for 65 cents instead of 2 packages for 25 cents.

CPA Still on Search

Local CPA pilots were aiding Civil Air Patrol squadron members and ground searchers in the search for Frank W. Szanto who disappeared September 23 while flying from Fairfield, Conn., to Schenectady. The air force has abandoned its search but CPA members are still searching for the atomic energy project engineer for Alco Products Company of Schenectady. Difficulty is being experienced as Szanto had failed to file a flight plan prior to takeoff. The parents of the 29-year-old pilot have offered $1,000 reward if he is found alive and $500 for recovery of his body.

Newcombe and Larson Picked for 2nd Game

Yanks Remain Series Choice

By JOE REICHLER

Brooklyn, Oct. 4 (AP) — Brooklyn's Don Newcombe and New York's Don Larsen, a pair of non-winning World Series righthanders, faced each other in the second game today as the underdog Dodgers sought to make it two in a row over the Yankees at Ebbets Field.

Although beaten 6-3 in yesterday's opener by the incredible Sal Maglie, the Yankees still remained a 6-5 favorite to win the series although for today's game it was 11-10 take your pick. Only once before had the Dodgers won the first game of a World Series. That was in 1952. The Yankees rebounded to win that one in seven games.

Baseball's biggest winner this year (27-7), the 30-year-old Newcombe has started three series games and lost them all, two in 1949 and one in 1953. All were to the Yankees. His first defeat, however, was a 1-0 decision in which Tommy Henrich hit a home run in the last of the ninth. He was knocked out of the box in his other starts.

Larsen (11-5) lost his only World Series appearance. He started and lost the fourth game to the Dodgers last year, giving up five hits and five runs in four innings. Big Don was the hottest Yankee pitcher during September, pitching low-hit games in his last four starts.

Lineups Same

Neither manager planned any lineup changes, but Brooklyn's Walter Alston said he would elevate Sandy Amoros, his left-handed hitting left fielder, from eighth to either sixth or seventh in the batting order.

Alston, pleased with the way Gil Hodges has been hitting in recent weeks, said the first baseman would continue in fifth spot with Carl Furillo batting either ahead or behind Amoros. Roy Campanella will be dropped from seventh to eighth. It was Hodges' three-run homer in the third inning that provided Maglie with the margin of victory after Jackie Robinson had gotten the Brooks started with a home run off loser Whitey Ford the previous inning.

Furillo also distinguished himself with a run-making double in the second to tie the score after the Yankees had staked Ford to a 2-0 lead in the opening inning on Enos Slaughter's single followed by Mickey Mantle's terrific shot over the right field screen.

Campanella and Amoros collaborated to provide the winning Dodgers with their final run. Roy greeted righthander Johnny Kucks, second of three relief pitchers, with a long double and crossed the plate on Amoros' line single to center.

Heroes Galore

There were heroes galore for the Dodgers yesterday but the biggest one of all was Maglie, the 39-year-old mound master with the old head and the young arm. He capped his sensational comeback before 34,479 cheering spectators, including President Eisenhower, with an amazingly courageous performance to complete one of the greatest triple-decker in the annals of baseball.

In his most recent three starts, Maglie the magnificent, pitched, in order, the first no-hitter of his career, hurled the Dodgers into first place a day before the season ended, and now his first World Series victory after two previous failures as a member of the New York Giants. The only thing left for him is to pitch the Dodgers into a world championship.

Maglie may have a chance to do that, too. The former Niagara Falls, N. Y., Dodger nemesis, although admittedly tired and "all knotted up" around the region of his right shoulder, said he thought he could pitch again Sunday, in the fifth game of the series, and added jokingly: "If it goes that far."

Alston, who has called on Maglie to pitch with only three days rest in his last four starts, declined to go so far as to name Sal's next assignment. "We'll have to see how he feels," he said.

Maglie's nine-hit success against the Yankees had an interesting sidelight that attests to the deep concentration he gives to his work. Sal attributed a large part of his triumph to a Yankee scouting report on him that backfired on the American League champions.

When it was pointed out to him that 21 Yankees hitters had taken called first strikes, he allowed a slow smile to crease his swarthy, blue-bearded face.

Only Three Swing

"Let me tell you a secret," he said. "A firiend of mine, a ball player—and I'm not going to tell you who he is—told me that [illegible] the Yankee coach, scouted me in a recent game [illegible]burgh. In his report back to the club he noted that the Pirates had swung at my first pitch on 14 occasions without hitting the ball safely.

"I figured," Sal continued, "they would be taking the first one and I decided to try to get it over the plate. I guess I figured right."

Only three Yankees swung at Maglie's first pitch. One of them, Billy Martin, hit it for a home run, in the fourth inning, to account for the final New York run. Sal did not permit another Yankee runner to reach third base although the Yankees threatened in every inning thereafter, leaving six of their nine stranded runners on base in the last five innings. He fanned 10 batters topping his season high and in the ninth he drew a final measure of revenge on Mantle. With Enos Slaughter on first with his single Maglie induced Mantle to slam into a game-ending double play.

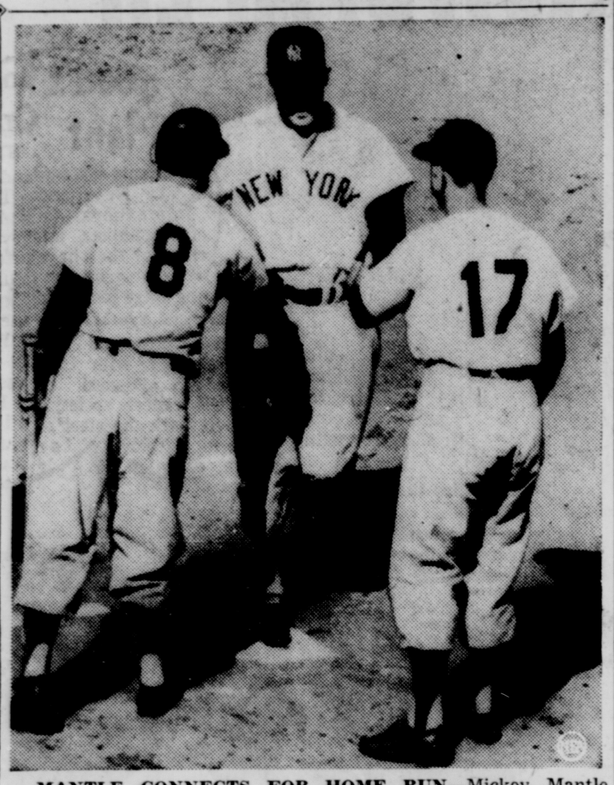

One Pitch Away

Sal was within one pitch of being removed in the fifth. With two Yankees on base in that inning and only one out, he got Yogi Berra to swing at an outside 3-2 pitch and send a harmless fly to Amoros. Bill Skowron followed suit to end the threat.

Alston, who had contemplated taking Maglie out as Berra stepped up to the plate but decided against it after talking it over with Sal, admitted Clem Labine would have replaced the veteran had the Yankee catcher drawn that fourth ball.

Maglie acknowledged he was "sluggish" at that point but a fast rubdown plus the appliance of some "hot stuff" by club trainer Harold (Doc) Wendler during the Dodgers' half of the fifth, apparently restored life to "The Barber's" arm.

Yesterday's victory marked the Dodgers' fourth consecutive triumph over the Yankees at Ebbets Field. They won all three games played in Brooklyn's ancient park last year when they upset the favored Yankees in the series. Should the series go the limit of seven games, it means three more must be played there. That makes it all the more of a mystery why the Yankees, one down already, should still be regarded as favorites in this series.

Maglie's First-Ball Strategy Foiled Yankee Dope

21 First Pitches Called Strikes

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Brooklyn, Oct. 4 (AP)—Sal Maglie cost the Brooklyn Dodgers $1,000—not $10,000, the waiver price—in baseball's bargain basement. Today you couldn't get him for $100,000.

The swarthy, 39-year-old castoff, waiverd out of both major leagues and considered "washed up," pitched the Dodgers to the National League pennant with a great stretch performance and then yesterday sent them off to the lead in the World Series by taming New York Yankee power, 6-3.

Only May 15 of this year, Buzzy Bavasi, vice president of the Dodgers, called Walt Alston, the manager.

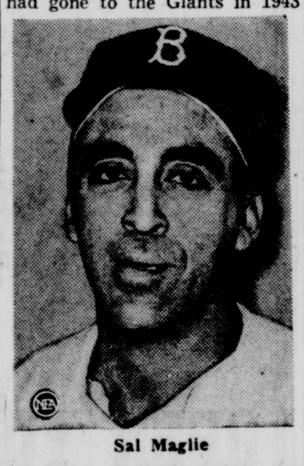

"Say, Skip," said Bavasi, "If I got a chance to get Maglie cheap would you want him?"

Alston pondered only a moment and then replied, "sure, I saw him a couple of weeks ago in our exhibition with Cleveland. He looked like he had a lot of stuff. He'd do us some good."

"He's yours," said Bavasi.

Started in 1938

Maglie had started his baseball career in 1938 with Buffalo, had gone to the Giants in 1943

Sal Maglie

for $3,200, later jumped to the Mexican league and then returned to the Giants in 1950 under Commissioner Happy Chandler's amnesty edict.

After a brilliant career with the Giants—particularly as the nemesis of the Dodgers, whom he beat 23 times—he was discarded in mid-1955 as an expensive luxury. Waived out of the National League, he was bought by Cleveland just to spite the Yankees.

With Cleveland, he was a costly luxury, too, earning $28,000 to sit on the bench. From July 31, 1955, he didn't win a game for the Indians while losing two.

It was in early May that Hank Greenberg, general manager of the Indians, called Walter O'Malley, president of the Dodgers. "This Maglie is no use to us, but he might help you," Greenberg said.

So waivers were asked again on Maglie and he wound up in a Brooklyn uniform, the uniform he used to hate with a vengeance.

The waiver price is $10,000. But insiders say the Dodgers paid Cleveland only $1,000 and offered to forget a small minor league deal with Cleveland amounting to another $1,000.

Impressed Alston

"Maglie had pitched against us April 30 in an exhibition game at Jersey City," Alston said. "He relieved Bob Feller, pitched five scoreless innings and beat us 1-0. I thought he had more stuff than when he was a member of the Giants."

Brooklyn was taking only a mild gamble. The plan was to use him for a month, find out if he was of any value and, if not, discard him. This would entail loss of only one month's salary out of an annual salary of $28,000.

"Sal said he was in good shape, that he kept his legs strong by doing road work," Alston said, "but we wanted to break him in gradually. On May 24 he relieved against the Phillies, and didn't do well.

"He started against the Phillies May 30 and went six innings. He won his first game June 4, beating Milwaukee. We never doubted after that. He won seven games in the last month of the season—our stretch drive. He won 13 games, but that easily could have been 18."

"He's a smart one," said the Yankees' Enos (Country) Slaughter. "His fast ball is gone but he runs you crazy with those sliders and sinkers. And he's always feeding you a bad ball, hoping you'll bite on it."

Fanned Ten Yanks

The Yankees were warned by scouts about the bad ball. Twenty-one times in the opening game they let Sal's first one go by without swinging. Most of them were strikes.

He struck out ten Yankees. He struck out Mickey Mantle with two on base and none out in the third. He made Yogi Berra bite at a bad pitch in the fifth and fly out when a walk would have filled the bases with one out. He made Mantle hit into a double-play to end the game.

His mother and sister, Carmen, and his wife, Kay, watched the World Series victory—Maglie's first.

"He pitched a good game, Sal did," said the mother, Mrs. Mary Maglie, tenderly.

"He'll murder you — take everything away from him and he'll claw you with his bare hands," said a Yankee, not so tenderly.

Olympics Drop Amateur Oath

Lausanne, Switzerland, Oct. 4 (AP)—The controversial anti-professional pledge, which had threatened to split Olympic ranks, has been suspended for the Melbourne games.

The IOC executive board last night decided after a three-hour session to return to the old Olympic vow which requires only that each athlete declare he is an amateur. The words "and to remain" (an amateur) were suppressed at least as far as the Melbourne games are concerned.

Avery Brundage of Chicago, president of the IOC and leader of the fight for the new rules, expressed satisfaction over the committee's action.

"The spirit remains," said Brundage.

Ellenville Keglers Join National Bowling Week

Ellenville bowlers are responding to the National Bowling Week "beat the champions" competition which is being sponsored by the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America and General Cigar Company under which a half dollar of the entry fee will be given to the American Red Cross chapters.

While the bowlers will not compete against Bill Lillard and Anita Cantaline, champions, at their local BPAA establishments until the week of October 8, in Ellenville over 25 entries have already been received, it was announced yesterday.

Peter Greco, proprietor of the Ellenville Bowling and Recreation Alleys, is cooperating in the National Bowling Week contest along with John Ferraro and John Sangi, proprietors of the two BPAA establishments in Kingston.

Ends Oct. 13

During National Bowling Week, October 7 through October 13, local bowlers may roll at the Cornell street Bowlodrome or the Railroad avenue Central Recreation Alleys in a contest to "beat the champions" and compete for a long list of prizes, including trips to Mexico City, bowling balls and other prizes. At the same time bowlers will be assisting their local Red Cross Chapter.

Entries are now being received at the local BPAA alleys in Kingston and Ellenville and during National Bowling Week members of the Ulster County Chapter American Red Cross will be present at the alleys to assist entrants in registering.

Muddle at Maryland: Why was Army-bound Quarterback Frank Tamburello ever drafted (and the Terps lost to Syracuse) when as a student in the top half of his class scholastically he was obviously eligible for deferment? . . . Nats' Kenville Sold to Pistons

Syracuse, Oct. 4 (AP)—Bill Kenville, former St. Bonaventure star, has been sold by the Syracuse Nationals to another National Basketball Assn. team, the Fort Wayne Pistons.

Angels Trim Cedaraps In "A" Contest, 84-71

Harry's Angels led all the way to upset Back's Cedaraps, 84-71, in a YMCA "A" Autumn League contest, despite a 40-point barrage by George Carpouzis.

The Angels led 34-42 at the half and blew the game apart with a 26-12 margin in the third period. Back's drew to within four points by a pressing with two minutes to go.

Firemen Trip Hoppey's

Olson Washed Up At the Age of 28

Portland, Ore., Oct. 4 (AP)—Carl (Bobo) Olson is hanging up his gloves.

Retirement of the former middleweight boxing champion was announced by his manager, Sid Flaherty, on the eve of his scheduled 10-round main event bout with Sammy Walker here tonight.

"His reflexes are too slow and he hasn't felt like his old self," Flaherty said of the once tireless-punching, durable Olson, who is 28.

Flaherty said the decision was made after consultation with Portland physicians.

Locksie's Princess Wins at Saratoga

Locksie's Princess, a pacer owned by Jim McCabe of Kingston and driven by Fred Larouech, won an overnight event at Saratoga Raceway Tuesday night.

The 5-year-old mare won in 2:18 3/5 over a muddy track and paid $6.40.

Perfect Handicap

Saratoga Springs, Oct. 4 (AP)—Seven pacers in a race at Saratoga Raceway last night finished exactly as predicted by Racing Secretary Harold Haswell when he handicapped them by post position. Tomie B won from the outside post and paid $8.50. The other entries finished in handicap order.

7-1 Shot Wins Roosevelt Race

Yonkers, Oct. 4 (AP)—Blackstone Widower, a 7-to-1 shot on the board and driven by Del MacTavish, beat the favored Adora by three lengths in the Larchmont Pace before 17,702 last night at Yonkers Raceway. H. A. Direct was third.

The winner paced the mile in 2:02 3/5 and paid $17.60.

Beecham Upsets Hec Constance

Miami Beach, Fla., Oct. 4 (AP)—Jimmy Beecham, the 21-year-old welterweight from Philadelphia, made his television boxing debut last night but he was no hit with the fans as he outpointed the Trinidad veteran, Hector Constance, in a boring 10-round bout.

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST By hal sharp

RABBIT-HUNTING TIP

DO NOT SET A FAST PACE WHEN RABBIT HUNTING; YOU CAN'T SPOT HIDING BUNNIES WHOSE INSTINCT HOLDS THEM UNMOVED UNTIL YOU HAVE PASSED BY. MOVE SLOWLY THROUGH ANY COVER, EVEN OPEN MEADOWS, SEARCHING CAREFULLY CLUMPS OF VEGETATION, ROCKS, STUMPS, DRAINAGES, FENCE ROWS, ET CETERA. PAUSE EVERY FEW YARDS FOR A FEW MOMENTS AND ONCE IN A WHILE A NERVOUS BUNNY WILL BREAK FOR THICKER COVER; TENSION IS TOO GREAT FOR HIM, OR HE THINKS HE'S BEEN DISCOVERED. SUCH BUNNIES ARE SELDOM SEEN BY A FAST HUNTER; THEY RELY ON THEIR CAMOUFLAGE.

BOWLING SCORES

Bill Kuehn, a once-a-week kegler who does remarkably well for a part-time trundler, mixed the maples for a 642 blast to lead last night's session of the Ferraro Major.

Tom Carlino posted 237-200-617; George Shufeldt 211-213-621; Milton Arlensky 202-210-608; Bruce Davis 217-607; and Eddie Heins 245 and 606 in the same circuit.

Jim Amendola decked 571 in the Ferraro Major. Frank Grimaldi 517, Chris Gallo 557, Hod Spaulding 206-568, Ad Jones 519, Ken Williams 218-574, Joe Misasi 247 (high single) and 570; Ken Joseph 200-559, Vern Van Dusen 217-574, George Robinson 202-537, Fred Schryver 521, Charlie Manfro 202-552.

Frank Cashara shot 517, Joe Ausanio 204-527, Dick Howard 534, Bob Birchall 549, Fred Rice 510, Cosmos Costello 500, Phil Masters 551, Larry Petersen 509, Jack Houghtaling 569, Frank Leskie 207-568, Jerry Oster 211-532.

Team results:

Prospect Dairies 1, Jones Dairy No. 2 (2); Ken Joseph's 2, Shufeldts 1; Tommie's Tavern 2, Wilber Heating 1; Jones Dairy No. 1 (1), Elston Sport Shop 2.

Anderson Leads IBM

Gordon Anderson's 562, via 172-174-216, was No. 1 triple in the IBM Superior circuit.

Al Studt toppled 534, Russell Fox 528, Art Pedersen 521, Harold Van Allen 504, Thayton Cone 507, Fred Dettori 211-559, F. Myers 211-560, Bill Robinson 509, Bob Birchall 207-515, Bill Adams 200-545, George Small 203-550, Hubie Ickes 202-525.

Tie in Federation

Petersen spliced 176-137-202 and Post downed 143-170-202. Austine Hitchcock rallied from 113 to reel off 198 and 200 for 511. Hank Diamond hit 500.

Team results:

Trinity Lutheran No. 1 (1), Fair Street No. 1 (2); Bergie AC 2, Comforters 1; Clinton Avenue No. 1 (1), St. James No. 2 (2).

Stephens Hits 507

Kay Foertsch shot 422, H. Mulligan 404, Anna Brown 402, Marion Davies 416, Cora Gray 477, Mildred Ellen Allison 404, Debra Joyce 451.

Tomaseskie Scores Forty In 'B' League

Blacktops continued to roll behind a 40-point barrage by Butch Tomaseskie to crush Wimpy's No. 2, 85-36, in the YMCA "B" Autumn League.

Tomaseskie canned 16 deuces and eight free throws. Jim Woods hooped 21 for the losers.

Milt Ebert drilled 21 points as Accord routed McCluskey's 60-42. Ronnie Ashdown's 14 points led the losers.

Charlie Marable's 35 markers highlighted the Ramblers' 65-37 breeze over Boulevard Gulf. Vince Hainer bucketed 16 for the Gulfmen.

THE BIGGER THEY COME...

Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Carpinelli Are Winners at Wiltwyck CC

Mrs. Prescott Newell led the combined A&B classes with a net 35 in the 9-hole Ladies' Day handicap tournament, Wednesday at the Wiltwyck Country Club.

Tied for second with net 36s were Mrs. Roland Riegel and Mrs. Robert H. Daley, woman's publicity chairman for golf at Wiltwyck.

Mrs. Bernard Carpinelli carded a net 48 to pace the Class C division.

The Wiltwyck ladies stage their final tournament of the season next Wednesday, Oct. 10). Luncheon at the club will follow and social members are invited to attend.

For Contended Birds

Bartlesville, Okla. (AP)—Glenn and Jerome Byron, who are raising 10,000 turkeys on a ranch near here, found a way to keep the excitable birds contented. They have placed loudspeakers around the ranch and pipe in soothing music. When there's a storm brewing, or a wolf howl upset the birds, one of the Byrons steps to the microphone and quietly talks the turkeys into relaxing.

Unofficial Warning

Lincoln, Neb. (AP) — Business was poor for Lincoln police attempting to nab speeders on Vine street. Investigation disclosed why. The police radar device was located at 40th and Vine. At 42nd and Vine, someone had posted a sign, "Radar Ahead."

Lightning Action

Sandpoint, Idaho (AP)—It will take some time for Mr. and Mrs. Pierce to get over the lightning storm which struck their house as they were watching television. No one was hurt, but a bolt hit their electric fence, traveled around the house, peeled the bark from four trees, set fire to a sofa in the yard, blew out the light bulbs and burned out the freezer and the electric roaster. The Pierces' only consolation: the TV wasn't hurt.

Chance Meeting

San Diego, Calif. (AP) — A search by Felix Vega of San Juan, Puerto Rico, for a brother he had not seen in 11 years ended successfully by a chance meeting of the two. Vega came here after hearing that his brother, Rafael, was working in San Diego or Tijuana, Mexico. Felix searched for three weeks with no success. Then Felix and his wife walked into a hotel coffee shop. Rafael was working there as a busboy.

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice of Public Hearing
On a Proposed Ordinance of the Ulster Water District, Ulster County, New York As Set Forth Herein

LEGAL NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to Section 198 of the Town Law of the State of New York and pursuant to a resolution of the Town Board of the Town of Ulster adopted September 26th, 1956, said Town Board will hold a public hearing at the Town Barn, Route 209, Town of Ulster on the 15th day of October 1956 at 7 o'clock P. M. Daylight Savings Time, to hear all interested parties and citizens for or against the adoption of a proposed ordinance to read as follows:

ORDINANCE RELATING TO THE OPERATION OF THE ULSTER WATER DISTRICT AND THE USE OF WATER THEREIN.

The Town Board of the Town of Ulster, Ulster County, New York, pursuant to Section 198 of the Town Law of the State of New York, does hereby ordain as follows:

SCOPE

Section 1: The purpose for the enactment of this ordinance is to promote the health, safety, and general welfare of the inhabitants of the Ulster Water District. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to use or attempt to use any of the facilities of the Ulster Water District except as hereinafter provided, nor shall any person, firm or corporation do or attempt to do any plumbing work in connection with the Ulster Water District otherwise and in compliance with the terms and provisions of this ordinance.

Section 2: The Superintendent of the Ulster Water District shall act as agent for the Town Board in the issuance of permits and inspection of work.

Section 3: No plumber or firm shall engage in the installation of services unless and until such plumber or firm shall have been approved by the Town Board or Superintendent.

APPLICATIONS

Section 4: All applications for use of water from the mains or distribution pipes of the Ulster District must be made at the office of the Town Clerk, where a copy of the rules and regulations will be furnished, together with instructions as to form prescribed for the purpose. The application shall state truly and fully each particular purpose and manner in which the water is to be used, and the name of the plumber or firm selected to do the work, and shall be signed by the owner of the premises or his authorized agent. Every plumber or firm shall be responsible for performing the work in accordance and pursuant to the authority of the proper state and county government agencies when applicable. The filing of certificates of insurance and the payment of fees for permits from such state and county government agencies shall be the responsibility of the plumber or firm doing the work.

PERMITS

Section 5: The permit may be granted thereupon by the Supt. of the Ulster Water District to the plumber or firm designated, who will be recognized as the agent of the owner or applicant.

TAPPING

Section 6: The tapping of water mains or distribution pipes, furnishing corporation cock, curb cocks and boxes shall be done by the Ulster Water District, to be paid for in advance by the person making application for a supply of water.

No simple tap larger than three-quarter inch (inside diameter) will be allowed, except by special permission issued by the Superintendent.

No water main or distribution pipe shall be tapped by any person except an authorized employe of the Ulster Water District.

DISTRIBUTION

Section 7: Any water supply taken from the District's system shall be distributed through a piping system entirely independent of and unconnected to any other system conveying another water supply.

SIZE OF WATER SUPPLY PIPES

Section 8: The minimum size of water-service pipes from the curb to the meter shall be ¾" copper service type K tubing and brass fittings and valves. No red or white lead joint compound shall be used on joints between main and the meter.

Two inch water services are to be laid with genuine galvanized wrought iron pipe and brass valves and galvanized malleable fittings.

PLUMBER'S TAPPING NOTICE

Section 9: A plumber or firm receiving a permit to lay service or supply pipes for the introduction of water to any premises shall give the Superintendent at least twenty-four hours' notice previous to the time for tapping the main.

EXPENSES PAID BY OWNER

Section 10: All expenses for introducing water to any premises, excavating for, and laying service pipes and all fixtures connected therewith (except the Corporation cock at the main which belongs to the Ulster Water District), must be paid by the owner of the premises.

SERVICE PIPES

Section 11: All service pipes to any premises shall be laid at least 4½ feet below the surface of the grade lines of the street and shall extend at right angles to and from the street main to the inside of the curbline where a curb cock shall be attached and valve box placed. There shall be a stop and waste cock placed on every supply pipe just inside the building or cellar and on customer's side of meter.

INTRODUCTION OF WATER SUPERVISION

Section 12: All work attendant upon the introduction of water to any premises, laying supply pipes thereto and fixtures connected therewith, shall be done under the supervision of the Superintendent of the Ulster Water District and subject to his approval.

PLUMBER'S REPORT

Section 13: All plumbers shall, after completing the work to any service pipe or fixture, make a true report, upon blanks furnished by the Ulster Water District of all the fixtures and pipes attached or connect by them or under their supervision and such report shall be filed in the office of the Town Clerk within forty-eight hours after completion of the work.

PLUMBERS

Section 14: No plumber shall make any addition, attachment, alteration or extension to any water supply or service pipe on any premises until a permit is granted upon an application made and signed by the owner of the premises as provided in Sections 4 and 5.

WATER MUST NOT BE TURNED ON

Section 15: No plumber or other person shall open any curb cock or turn on the supply of water to any service pipe without a permit from the Ulster Water District.

INDEPENDENT STOPS TO EACH HOUSE

Section 16: One tap and one service pipe will not be allowed to supply more than one house or premises unless such service pipe be provided with separate and independent curb stops and boxes at the curb line in front of each house or premises. In no case will service pipes be allowed to run across lots, but must be taken from the main in front of the premises. Any exception to this regulation must receive the approval of the Town Board.

SHUTTING OFF

Section 17: The supply of water to any premises may be shut off for non-payment, if any quarterly bills or other charges are unpaid at the expiration of sixty days from the date due; the Superintendent shall give such delinquent five days' printed or written notice, at the expiration of which time if the charges are not paid the water will be shut off from such premises until said charges are paid in full. The sum of Two dollars shall be charged for turning the water on.

The payment of the regular water rents shall not conflict with the right of the Superintendent to shut off the supply of water from any premises for any violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance.

In case a house or other building is to be closed or become vacant, notice thereof should be given the District in order that the meter may be read and curb cock closed. Where such notice is not given and pipes burst from freezing or other cause, the value of water lost by reason thereof, as estimated by the District Superintendent; together with the additional sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) to cover labor and expense to the District, shall be added to the next bill and be paid in like manner as regular water charges.

SHUTTING OFF AT MAIN

Section 18: In the cases where water is shut off for non-payment of water rent or other causes, and when, in the opinion of the Superintendent, the shutting off at the curb is not sufficient protection against the further use of water, he may cause the Corporation cock to be shut off and the supply pipe to be discontinued therefrom.

RE-APPLICATION

Section 19: Upon reapplication for water where the water has been shut off at the corporation cock an additional charge of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) must be paid for opening street main, and reconnecting the supply line.

DAMAGES, ADDITIONS AND REPAIRS

Section 20: No person shall be entitled to damages nor to have any portion of a payment refunded for any stoppage of supply occasioned by accident to any portion of the work, nor for stoppage for purposes of additions or repairs. Owners desiring pressure reducing valves shall furnish and install same at their own expense. The Superintendent of the Ulster Water District shall have the right to shut off water to make repairs or additions of new work.

CHECK VALVES

Section 21: In all cases where water is supplied to water backs in stoves and ranges, or to steam boilers for domestic use or manufacturing purposes, the supply pipe must be provided with a suitable check valve or other sufficient device to prevent damage from collapse or explosion when the water is shut off from the street mains or other causes.

Whenever a check valve is installed on the cold water supply pipe between the street main and the hot water tank, there shall be installed on the hot water distributing system a suitable relief valve.

High pressure steam boilers shall not be supplied with water directly from public water supply pipes. All such boilers shall be provided with a tank or other receptacle of sufficient capacity to hold not less than six (6) hours' supply for the boiler.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS

Section 22: The use of water in all public and school buildings shall be subject to the same requirements and restrictions as in private dwellings.

FIRE HYDRANTS—VALVES

Section 23: No person or persons shall open any fire hydrant or draw water therefrom except the Superintendent of the Ulster Water District and persons under his direction, or with his permission, except in case of fire, when the Chief of the Fire Department, his assistants, officers and members of the Fire Department shall have free and entire control of the hydrants for the purpose of extinguishing fires.

No person or persons except the Superintendent and employes under his direction shall open or close any valve or gate in any water main or street pipe, or in any manner interfere with or obstruct the same.

BUILDING AND SPECIAL PERMITS

Section 24: Persons desiring to use water for building purposes, filling cisterns, or for any special purpose whatever, will be required to make application at the office of the Town Clerk and to pay in advance for the same, when the Superintendent will issue a permit therefor, such advance payment to be the minimum charge as fixed by Section 28.

METERS

Section 25: No meter shall be set or attached by any person other than an employee of the Ulster Water District, nor shall any meter so attached be interfered with, removed, disconnected or repaired by any person other than an employe of the Ulster Water District. The plumber making the installation shall provide all necessary supports for the meter as directed by the Superintendent. The Superintendent shall be given not less than twenty-four hours' notice of the setting of the meter.

Owners of premises where meters are attached to the supply pipes will be required to protect the meter from frost or other injury at their own expense, and whenever it should be necessary to attach a meter outside of the building they shall pay the expense incurred in excavating for and boxing same.

Where a water meter fails to register the correct quantity of water delivered through it or where it otherwise becomes out of order or in need of repair, notice thereof shall be given the District. Another meter will be loaned and installed during the time required for testing and repair. When repairs are found necessary, the same shall be made by the District. When, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the District, a meter becomes unsuitable for use, it shall be replaced by another.

PROTECTION OF EXCAVATION AND SECURITY

Section 26: Any plumber or firm obtaining a permit to make connections with the Ulster Water District system, shall save harmless the said district from all suits, accidents, and damages consequential thereupon, for, or by reason of any opening in any street, alley or avenue, made by him, or by those in his employ, for making any connection with said water district system, or for any other purpose or object whatever, and he shall also replace and restore the said street over such opening in as good a state and condition as he found it, or reimburse the District for the cost of the same when done by said District. He shall keep guards by day and lights by night and keep and maintain the same in good order and comply with all ordinances of the Town Board applicable thereto. Every plumber or firm, before commencing any work or installation, shall have executed and filed in the Office of the Town Clerk, the following bonds or certificates of insurance which shall indicate the following required insurance coverages:

A. PUBLIC LIABILITY
1. Contractor's liability.
2. Owner's Protective (Ulster Water District named insured)

Each in the following amounts; $100,000.00/$300,000.00.

B. PROPERTY DAMAGE $50,000/$100,000.00

C. BLASTING COVERAGE (if applicable) $25,000/$50,000.

D. WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION (as required by statute).

E. LICENSE AND PERMIT BOND in the amount of $5,000.00 guaranteeing that the holder will observe the laws of the municipalities involved and will hold the District harmless for any damage done.

The bonds, insurance and certificates herein required shall be approved by the District's counsel as to its form and sufficiency.

CONTRACT

Section 27: All the foregoing rules, regulations and restrictions made and adopted by the Town Board, shall be considered a part of the contract with and between any person who applies for and obtains a supply of water, and every person receiving the water so supplied shall be considered as having expressed his consent to be bound thereby.

SCHEDULE OF WATER RATES

Minimum rate shall be $20.00 per year, payable $5.00 quarterly as set forth in Section 29.

For 10,000 gallons or any portion thereof in each quarter $5.00

For second 10,000 gallons ($0.50) per 1,000 gallons.

For third 10,000 gallons ($0.45) per 1,000 gallons.

PAYMENT OF WATER RENTS

Section 29: All water rents or other charges shall be payable at the office of the Town Clerk.

All water rents, accounts or other charges shall be made against the owner or owners of the premises which is connected with the water main, and such owners shall be held responsible for all accounts and charges.

Water rents for all services shall be payable quarterly, at the end of each quarter on the first days of April, July, October and January.

Ten per cent will be added to bills not paid within thirty days from the date the same are due and payable.

Water rents for fractional parts of a quarter shall be pro-rated for the remainder of the quarter, and be payable on the first day of the ensuing quarter.

The foregoing schedule of rates is subject to change from time to time without notice from the Town Board.

WILLFUL VIOLATIONS

Section 30: Any willfull act whereby the said Ulster Water District or any property, apparatus or appliances pertaining thereto shall be injured, or the supply of water obstructed, impaired or made less pure shall be deemed a violation of this ordinance.

VIOLATIONS—PUNISHMENT

Section 31: Any violation of the rules and regulations and provisions of this ordinance is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $50.00 or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or by both said fine and imprisonment. When a violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance is continuous, each twenty-four hours thereof shall consitute a separate and distinct violation.

VALIDITY

Section 32: If any section, paragraph, subdivision or provision of this ordinance shall be invalid, such invalidity shall apply only to the section, paragraph, subdivision or provision adjudged invalid and the rest of this ordinance shall remain valid and effective.

EFFECTIVE DATE

AMBASSADOR ON WHEELS — Sleek lines of this 1957 model Ford were calculated to bug out the eyes of Ivan, Russia's equivalent of America's Joe Smith, when it appeared in Moscow at about the same time as the 1957 models were unveiled in the U.S. Idea for a simultaneous American-Russian showing was a sort of automotive cloak-and-dagger plot hatched by the State Department and Ford officials. They see it as a forceful presentation of the American economic story in terms of the goods available to the average U.S. worker. Shown being unloaded in Helsinki, Finland, for transhipment by rail to the American embassy in Moscow, it's one of eight new Fords added to the embassy's motor pool of mostly pre-1950 American-made autos.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to Section 523, Article XI of the Conservation Law, the Water Power and Control Commission will meet in the Town Office Building of the town of Ulster on the 16th day of October, 1956, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day for the purpose of hearing all persons, waterworks corporations, municipal corporations or other civil divisions of the State of New York that may be affected by the execution of the plans of the town of Ulster for the extension of the water supply system of the Ulster Water District into Extension No. 1 of that district and for the sale of water in that extension, plans for which have been filed with the Water Power and Control Commission, at its office in Albany, N. Y., where the same are open for public inspection; and for the purpose of determining whether said plans are justified by public necessity, whether they provide for the proper and safe construction of all work connected therewith, whether they provide for the proper protection of the supply and watershed from contamination or provide for the proper filtration of such additional supply, whether they are just and equitable to the other municipalities and civil divisions of the State of New York and to the inhabitants thereof affected thereby, and whether they make fair and equitable provisions for the determination and payment of any and all legal damages to persons and property, both direct and indirect, which will result from the execution thereof.

All persons, waterworks corporations, municipal corporations, or other civil divisions of the State of New York, who have objections to the execution of said plans, in order to be heard thereon, must file such objections thereto in writing and in duplicate in the office of the Water Power and Control Commission in the city of Albany, N. Y., on or before the 15th day of October, 1956. Every objection so filed must particularly specify the grounds thereof.

No persons, waterworks or municipal corporation or local authority can be heard in opposition thereto except on objection so filed.

Negligence Case Given to Jury

An action for negligence arising out of an accident on March 4, 1955 on Route 9W near the St. Joseph Juniorate at West Park was moved for trial in Supreme Court before Justice Donald S. Taylor. The accident happened on a stormy, icy day and several cars were involved.

Carl J. Knudsen and his wife were operating a car south and bring an action for damages against Otto J. Albrecht and Jennie Chafouleas who were operating cars in an opposite direction. Harold S. Boice, whose car was also involved in the skidding accident, was also named a defendant but the action against him was dismissed, prior to the case going to trial. Thomas J. Plunket appears for plaintiff's and Albrecht is represented by Roy L. Featherstone and Jennie Chafouleas by Arthur B. Ewig. Cook and Cook had appeared for Boice.

Testimony was concluded Wednesday afternoon and the case was summed up and submitted to the jury today.

The U. S. Post Office Department purchased 2,000 bicycles for postmen use in the next fiscal year.

Ike May Pick First Negro as District Judge

Washington, Oct. 4 (AP)—Legal authorities here speculated today that President Eisenhower may make Scovel Richardson the first Negro to serve as a federal district judge.

It was reported that Eisenhower is considering Richardson for the place on the Federal District Court at St. Louis left vacant by the death last summer of Judge Rubey M. Hulen.

Richardson was dean of the Lincoln University Law School in St. Louis prior to his appointment to the parole board by Eisenhower in July, 1953. He has been chairman for the last two years.

Richardson was born in Nashville, Tenn., and attended public schools in Chicago. He won two degrees from the University of Illinois and was graduated from the Howard University Law School in Washington in 1937.

About 33 per cent of the total ore imports into the U. S. in 1955 came from India.

Harriman to Seek Tighter Laws to Reduce Accidents

Cheektowaga, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP) — Gov. Harriman says he will call for legislative measures next year to tighten motor vehicle laws and thereby reduce the number of highway accidents.

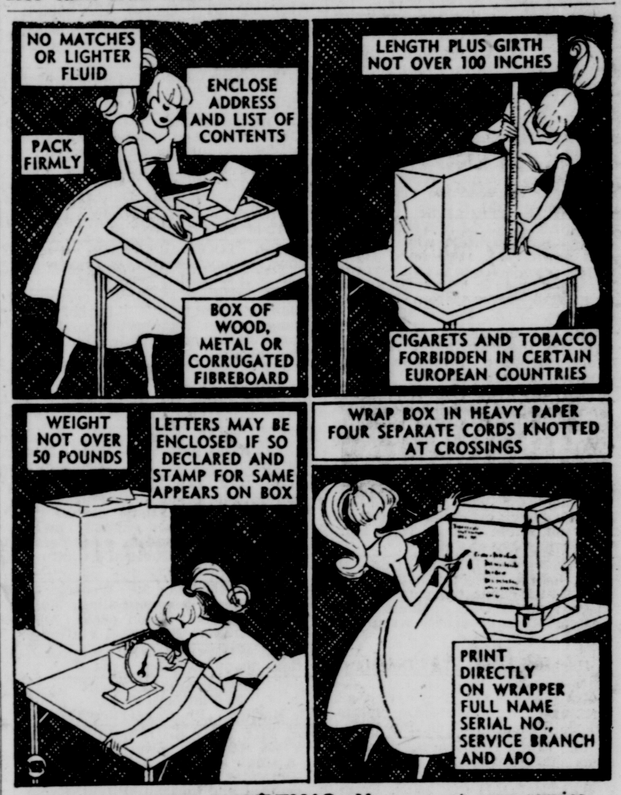

The governor said last night that among the measures he will propose to the 1957 Legislature is one calling for the suspension of driving licenses in cases where bad judgment is deemed the cause of the accidents. Under present law drivers must be guilty of gross negligence.

Other measures, the governor said, would recognize forfeiture of bail as the equivalent of conviction under the point system for license suspension, and would call for speed-recording devices on trucks similar to those now required for buses.

Harriman outlined his highway safety program at a dinner meeting here of the Police Conference of the State of New York.

Transoceanic Telephone

The world's first transoceanic telephone cable system, recently opened between U. S., Canada and England can carry up to 36 conversations simultaneously.

FOR SERVICES' CHRISTMAS—If you want your serviceman overseas to get his Yuletide package by Christmas Day, mail it between Oct. 15 and Nov. 15, warns the Post Office Department. Illustrated above are some of the principal regulations for such mailings. However, there are also some special rules, so check with your local post office. In addition to the package rules, the P.O. advises that Christmas cards must be enclosed in sealed envelopes and carry first-class postage.

Medical Society Is Guest of IBM

Sixty-five members and guests of the Ulster County Medical Society held their monthly meeting Tuesday evening at the IBM Military Products Division plant as guests of the business machines corporation.

Dr. Robert Whitfield, chief of neuro-surgery at Albany Medical College, was the guest speaker for the first annual Campbell Memorial Lecture. The memorial was created to the late Eldridge Campbell of Albany whose neuro-surgical skill provided extensive care to the residents of this area.

Dr. Whitfield discussed the treatment of intra-cranial aneurysms and spontaneous subdural hemorrhage.

The society was greeted by Richard McNaughton, assistant personnel manager at the IBM plant, who outlined the growth of the Kingston plant and discussed future expanion plans.

Following the meeting the members of the society and their guests were served a buffet supper in the plant cafeteria.

Puerto Rico Excluded

Lausanne, Switzerland, Oct. 4 (AP)—The executive board of the International Olympic Committee excluded Puerto Rico from the Melbourne Olympic games today because of government interference in the Puerto Rican Olympic committee. The action was taken during a two-day emergency meeting of the board which last night decided to suspend the controversial anti-professional pledge for athletes competing at Melbourne.

Series Game Off

have to. It is not fair to the players and the spectators.

"Many games have been played through the full nine innings in miserable weather. I recall especially the opening game of the 1936 world series when Carl Hubbell pitched for the Giants on a field that was covered by an inch of water.

"If a world series game is started, the rules of baseball apply and five innings would constitute a game, four and a half innings if the home team is ahead."

Worst in Indiana

10 Killed In Head-on Collision

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 4 (AP)—An automobile carrying nine Muncie residents, eight of them members of one family, smashed headon into a Keystone, Ind., man's car last night, crushing the life from all 10 occupants.

It was believed to be the worst automobile accident in Indiana history.

The victims were identified as Fred D. Beal, 32; his sister, Loretta Beal; their mother, Mrs. Marie Clark, 60; Beal's wife, Lillian, 30; their daughters, Inez, 8, Chestina, 6, Vickie Lynn, 5, and Claudia, 4; Jesse W. Price, 37, all of Muncie, and Thomas B. Burns, 36, Keystone.

Nine Were Negroes

Police said the nine Muncie residents were Negroes. Beal worked in a steel mill.

The crash occurred six miles west of Muncie on Ind. 67. Coroner Eugene Eissman said state police told him Beal's car, traveling southwest at high sped, hit Burns' car and pushed it 88 feet down the road.

One of the women lived long enough to be brought to Ball Memorial Hospital, where she died a few minutes after being admitted. The others died in the tangled wreckage.

6 Still Missing

ence, the Rev. Francis Desmond, pastor of Jackson's Queen of the Miraculous Medal Roman Catholic Church, led the huge crowd of onlookers in the Lord's prayer.

Relatives of missing men stayed at the scene through the long night under the glare of floodlights and strings of lightbulbs.

One wing of the building, designed to keep power flowing to Michigan's mighty industry in the event of enemy attack, caved inward about 1:30 p. m. (EST) yesterday as if pulled down by an invisible force.

Floors Crumbled

Its four heavy floors crumbled one by one and telescoped into the basement. Screaming workmen were carried down amid tons of concrete to be buried in a huge pile of twisted wreckage.

About 40 electricians, carpenters and construction men were working on the floor that gave way. Several were able to leap to sections that remained standing, but more than a score was trapped.

Doctors and nurses gave painkilling drugs and first aid as battered victims were dragged clear to waiting ambulances. Clergymen gave comfort and the last rites of the church.

Ignore Danger

Scores of rescue workers, spurred on by moans and screams that came at first from beneath the wreckage, ignored the danger that other parts of the shattered structure might also collapse.

Those who could not find tools clawed at the wreckage with bare hands.

All the city's ambulances were called to the scene three miles north of Jackson just off U. S. 127. State police and Jackson county law enforcement officers were quickly joined by civil defense workers and Red Cross personnel. Jackson is about 70 miles west of Detroit.

Guard Stands Ready

Gov. G. Mennen Williams ordered all nearby National Guard forces to stand by for duty.

The $2,800,000 building, scheduled for completion next fall, was to contain five of Consumers Power's 16 principal offices. It was designed by Black and Black, a Lansing, Mich., architectural firm.

The Herlihy Mid-Continent Co. of Chicago is the general contractor.

The more than 100 workmen, engaged in the over-all project, had returned from lunch less than a half hour earlier when the east wing of the 200-by-400 foot building gave way. Concrete was being poured for the fourth floor when the collapse came.

Earlier, Frank Herlihy, the general contractor, made an inspection tour of the building with Jim Mahoney of the C. L. Mahoney Co. of Kalamazoo, the plumbing contractor. They found no signs of structural weakness, they said.

Herlihy said there was no indication "green" cement was being used. He said he believes the cement had been properly cured and all precautions taken not to pour it too fast. He promised an investigation.

The possibility of a state legislative probe also was mentioned. State Rep. Wilfred G. Bassett, Republican from Jackson, said he may call for an investigation.

Trapper's Guide

Toledo, Ohio (AP)—Anyone who knew of eight-year-old Meil Carmean's ambition to become a beaver trapper might have surmised that his trip to the hospital was caused by a bout with a beaver. Nope. It was a beaver trapper's beverage that laid Meil low. When he read that beaver trappers drank "castor bean oil," the boy went out and purchased a bottle of castor oil and a bottle of camphorated oil. A few swigs later, Meil was in Toledo Hospital, being treated for an upset stomach.

Extra Installation

San Diego, Calif. (AP)—A local attorney, couldn't find a gas connection for his wife's clothes dryer when they moved into their new home. He had one installed. Then he discovered the clothes dryer was electric.

Parents Music Club Proposed At West Hurley

Formation of a children's-parents' club which would share interest in band instruments was proposed by Andrew Hummel, music director, at the first annual meeting of the West Hurley Parent-Teachers' Association held Tuesday evening in the school auditorium.

Under Mr. Hummel's plan, parents can learn to play instruments their children are studying and would meet one night a week to receive instruction in the technique of various instruments.

"Not only would such a plan enable parents to guide their children's practicing but it would be a source of musical pleasure to all those who regretfully wish they had studied some instrument as a child," Mr. Hummel said.

Meetings Scheduled

Two meetings of the club were scheduled to determine interest in such a plan and interested parents were asked to contact Mr. Hummel.

The association also heard reports from James McCarty, principal, Miss Jean Hamm, dental technician and Miss Margaret Christiana, school nurse.

It was voted to send two or more delegates to the annual convention of the New York State Congress of Parents and Teachers in New York city October 9. Members interested in the trip are asked to contact Mrs. Jeanette Davidson, president.

Orange County College Offers Insurance Course

Continuing its program for insurance men and women who are qualified and interested in preparing for the Chartered Life Underwriters designation (CLU), Orange County Community College, through its extension division, is offering a course in Fundamentals of Life Insurance and Annuities starting Saturday, Oct. 13.

The class will meet alternate Saturdays for 16 sessions from 9 to 1 p. m. at the college. The course will cover needs and uses, types of contracts, the arithmetic of premiums and reserves, contract provisions and legal principles, structure of the business and fundamentals of programming and settlement options. Registration for the course is now going on and will continue through next week. Instructor for the class will be Ernest R. Shears of Basking Ridge, N. J.

Over the past two years the Community College has given additional courses for CLU candidates to help them prepare for the examinations leading up to the designation. Further information about this year's course may be obtained by contacting the office of George E. Erbstein, director of the Extension Division of the College.

TwoKingstonMen Named Directors

Two Kingston businessmen were elected directors of the New York State Council of Retail Merchants Inc. at its annual convention as Grossinger's, Sullivan county last week.

Clyde E. Wonderly Jr., vice-president of The Wonderly Co., Inc., was elected for the first time and Henry Singer of Singer's Department Store was re-elected.

Washington, Oct. 4 (AP)—The cash position of the treasury Oct. 1, 1956: Balance, $6,179,872,681.87; deposits fiscal year July 1, $17,373,596,417.57; withdrawals fiscal year, $18,579,096,115.48; total debt, $274,289,389,816.72x; gold assets, $21,883,992.185.70; x—includes $458,760,043.86 debt not subject to statutory limit.

Hurley Democrats Will Hear Kelly

Former County Judge William A. Kelly will be the principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Hurley Democratic Club at 8 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 9, at the Hurley Fire Hall.

John Flanagan, secretary of the club, said today that Judge Kelly, through his long experience as a lawyer and particularly through his work on the Ulster County Board of Elections, is well qualified for the subject of his talk, "Election Law"—its requirements and recent changes.

Mr. Flanagan said there would be a question and answer period.

Any resident of Hurley will be welcome to the meeting, Mr. Flanagan said, pointing out that it might be helpful to residents not familiar with the election law.

"We feel that through the activities of our club we have created interest in the town government. This is evidenced by the increasing number of citizens who are attending each town board meeting every month. If, through Judge Kelly's visit to Hurley, we can acquaint at least some of our neighbors with the details of the election law we will be adding our part to what other civic organizations are doing to make Hurley a better place in which to live," Mr. Flanagan said.

J. J. Carroll of Hurley is president of the club, with Joseph Yack of Hurley and Mortimer McMahon of West Hurley as vice-presidents. William Chant of Hurley is treasurer.

The club meets on the second and last Tuesdays of each month, alternating its meetings between the Hurley district on Route 209 and the West Hurley district on Route 28.

Denies Statement

Washington, Oct. 4 (AP)—Edward A. Foote has denied as "untrue" a statement that his stock dealings conflicted with his official duties as an attorney in the Justice Department's antitrust division. Rep. Celler (C-N.Y.), chairman of the House Antitrust Subcommittee, issued the statement yesterday, saying Foote, before he resigned Sept. 14 as the Justice Department's No. 2 trust-buster, dealt "in stocks of corporations under investigation or otherwise involved in matters" before his office.

Ornithologists have found that birds sing an average of 18 hours daily most of the year.

It's All Presley

Redding, Calif., Oct. 4 (AP)—Manager Paul Farrelle of radio station KSDA served up 15½ hours of rock 'n' roll yesterday and last night and announced, with a resigned sigh: "If it's Presley they like, Presley they'll get." Farrelle's musical tastes are non-Presleyan. He banned rock 'n' roll discs from the KSDA's programs several weeks ago. Protests blared in. So yesterday, right after the World Series broadcast, rock 'n' roll began—and continued.
